GERMANY BEGS ENGLAND TO BE NEUTRAL

BILLION DOLLARS IN NEW CURRENCY FOR UNITED STATES

Action of Congress Makes Circulating Medium Greater Than Ever Before in the History of the Country.

FINANCIAL POSITION GREATLY IMPROVED

New Money to Be Issued Under a Modification of the Bank Law—Situation Well in Hand.

Washington, August 3.—More than a billion dollars in currency will be added to the circulating medium in the United States by the action of congress today to meet the situation resulting from the European crisis. This new money, backed by prime assets of banks, may be issued under a modification of the bank law, passed in both house and senate, then compromised in conference and approved by the administration for final action in both houses tomorrow.

All national banks and all state banks, and trust companies, members of the new federal reserve system, and those that have agreed to join, may issue notes under the Aldrich-Vreeland section of the bank law, up to 125 per cent of their combined capital and surplus.

There is approximately $1,760,000,000 such capital and surplus on which issue of notes may be based. Of that, about $800,000,000 invested in government bonds is not available. Approximately $500,000,000 plus 25 per cent therefore is ready as a basis of issue. Bankers told administration leaders the issue available should more than care for any situation.

To Apportion Geographically.

The senate imposed a further condition that banks shall deposit with the government, against the new issue, a gold reserve of not less than 5 per cent and that the new notes shall be apportioned geographically to care for local banking needs and industries.

As originally proposed by the senate banks might have issued up to the former limit of five hundred millions. The house today removed all restrictions as to amount. The senate thinking a limitation wise, amended the proposal to limit the issue to combined capital and surplus, and the extra 25 per cent was added in conference as a compromise.

Hundred of millions of new notes are ready for the all of the banks; shipments to financial centers have begun and the bureau of engraving is making more night and day.

Further relief for the situation was expected by the organization of the federal reserve board Paul M. Warburg's delayed confirmation was advanced by his examination in the banking committee today and Chairman Owen predicted a favorable report.

President Wilson has selected his nominee for the place of Thomas D. Jones, but will not disclose his identity until the man accepts.

Giving Support to Banks.

The treasury department today continued to give moral and physical support to banks of the United States. It responded to requests from national currency associations throughout the country and put in the hands of express companies millions in Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency. Shipments were made to several large cities and all subtreasuries will be supplied with currency to meet any demands.

Secretary McAdoo returned today from his Sunday night conference with New York bankers and announced he had the utmost confidence in the ability of the government and banks to take care of any situation.

It seemed to be the opinion here that the next few days will show which of the nations now at war will control the seas, and with that question settled there is no reason to fear that American export trade will not be resumed to a large extent.

Mr. McAdoo talked late today with Festus J. Wade, president of the St. Louis Clearing House association, who is understood to have given assurance that conditions in St. Louis and contiguous territory were exceedingly good.

MONEY POSITION GREATLY IMPROVED.

New York, August 3.—The financial position of this country to all appearances tonight was appreciably better than twenty-four hours ago. Prompt relief measures composed a situation which for a time threatened to become ominous and bankers who last night admitted the outlook was troubled, expressed confidence tonight that the energetic steps taken would meet all needs.

The same opinion was expressed by John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, who spent the day at the subtreasury. At the close of the day Mr. Williams said all was serene.

Situation Well in Hand.

"The finances of the country," he added, "are in excellent shape. We have the situation well in hand. All

BOY MEETS DEATH IN BOXING MATCH

Robert Adams Killed by Ray Nevil While They Were Sparring in Front of College Park Bank.

Robert Adams, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Adams, of College Park, was killed last night about 9 o'clock by a boy friend, Ray Nevil, while the two were boxing in front of the College Park bank.

The fatal blow struck young Adams over the heart, and he died in a few minutes without ever regaining consciousness. The physicians who attended him decided that his death was caused from a ruptured blood vessel, and said that it was possible that his fall after receiving the blow was the direct cause of his death. The boy complained during the day of feeling badly.

George Longino, another companion, was playing with the two boys at the time of the accident.

Adams is survived by his parents and one sister. His father, who is a Pullman conductor on the Southern railway, was wired last night to return home. The body is at Hemperley's undertaking chapel.

How to Find Desirable Rooms or Board

BRIDE LURED AWAY, DECLARES HUSBAND, ASKING POLICE AID

William L. Scruggs, Jr., department manager of the King Hardware company, living at 47 Culberson street, who ran away with Miss Malvina Hudson, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hudson, of 83 West Ontario avenue, marrying her at Marietta, Ga., June 29, last night appealed to Assistant Chief of Police R. L. Jett to assist him in getting back his youthful bride from the home of her parents, where he charged she had been lured Monday afternoon and held against her will.

Mr. and Mrs. Scruggs did not let Mr. and Mrs. Hudson know that they had married until Saturday, when Mrs. Scruggs returned from Washington, where she was supposed to have been visiting relatives.

Monday afternoon, according to the story Scruggs told Assistant Chief Jett, his wife received a message from her mother asking her to come home immediately.

When Scruggs returned home from his work last night his youthful bride was missing, and when informed by his people where she had gone, he straightway telephoned her, and was informed by his mother-in-law that he could not see her.

Scruggs visited the home of his wife's parents in an effort to get his wife, but, according to the police, was not allowed even to catch a glimpse of her. The police have taken no action yet.

NATION-WIDE FIGHT ON SOCIAL DISEASES

Philadelphia, August 3.—A nation-wide fight to stamp out social diseases in the United States by placing all patients under government supervision was started here today by the annual convention of the American Osteopathic association. More than two thousand osteopaths are in attendance.

A resolution adopted asks the co-operation of every school of practice in having state laws passed to make compulsory the reporting of all cases of social diseases to established state bureaus.

THREE NEAR DEATH WHEN AUTO BURNS

Gasoline Tank Explodes, Tossing C. G. Hannah, G. G. Goree and Chauffeur High Into the Air.

Three men narrowly escaped death Monday afternoon shortly before 2 o'clock on the Collier road, near the Howell Mill road, when a five-passenger automobile, owned by C. G. Hannah, of 635 Lee street, was blown to pieces by a terrific explosion of the gasoline tank, placed underneath the front seat of the machine.

Mr. Hannah, with G. G. Goree, of 35 Drewry street, had been out real estate prospecting on the Howell Mill road. They had just turned into the Collier road and were speeding at the rate of about twenty miles an hour when the explosion occurred.

Mr. Goree and Mr. Hannah and the chauffeur were thrown high into the air. Mr. Goree landed fully twenty feet from the place in the road where the explosion occurred. He was picked up half unconscious, his arms burned badly by the burning oil.

Pieces of the shattered gasoline tank, flaming, were hurled 100 feet each side of the roadway, landing in the woods, setting fire to them. A spectacular sight ensued. The car burst into flames, and was soon burned up. The woods caught fire, but were soon extinguished by county policemen, who came up on motorcycles.

Mr. Hannah escaped uninjured in the explosion, except being badly bruised when pitched violently from his car.

A passing automobile was summoned and Mr. Goree was placed in it and rushed to the city for medical attention. His wounds were later reported as not serious.

HOW TO FINANCE AND TRANSPORT SOUTH'S COTTON

Senators and Representatives From Cotton States Hold a Conference to Devise Ways and Means.

COMMITTEE IS NAMED TO CONFER WITH WILSON

President Glenny of the New Orleans Exchange Wires Something Must Be Done to Prevent Demoralization.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, August 3.—(Special.)—How to finance and transport this year's cotton crop to prevent demoralization of the industry and losses to the cotton farmer on account of the European war, was discussed for two hours tonight at a meeting of senators and representatives from cotton-growing states.

To Confer With Wilson.

Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, was elected chairman of the conference and was authorized to name a committee to confer with President Wilson and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and arrange some plan for meeting the present emergency.

Senator West, of Georgia, suggested the appointment of a senator and representative from each of the eleven cotton-growing states on the committee. There were other suggestions as to the size of the committee but it was finally decided to name one congressman from each state, either a senator or representative.

The most encouraging note of the evening was sounded by Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, who predicted that the English navy would annihilate Germany's battleship fleet within two weeks and that Great Britain would patrol the seas and protect American exports of cotton.

America Must Finance Cotton.

Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, read the following telegram received tonight from E. J. Glenny, president of the New Orleans Cotton exchange, which epitomized the situation discussed at the conference:

"Present condition foreign exchange makes it impossible to export cotton. Therefore America will have to finance cotton until conditions become more nearly normal. It is therefore evident that the price of cotton must suffer, entailing heavy losses upon farmers unless banks receive some assistance beyond their normal resources. Cannot something be done by the government to assist in this matter. Beyond the financial conditions is the lack of neutral bottoms to carry the requisite amount of cotton, to bring any substantial relief financially, and as the exports of cotton annually amount to nearly 10,000,000 bales the amount of money involved will be large. This would not all be necessary at once, but any assistance offered by the government would go a long way towards restoring confidence. The loss will fall almost entirely upon the farming class, as cotton has not left the farmers' hands and the merchants cannot buy without financial assistance

Wheat and Cotton.

Senator Ransdell also suggested inviting the congressman from the wheat growing states to participate.

Senator West, of Georgia, showed that wheat was on a different basis from cotton. Wheat would go up in price if the transportation problem was solved, he said, because there would still be a demand for wheat to feed the armies as well as non-combatants. With cotton, the paralysis of the cotton mills, would curtail the demand and prices would drop.

Senator Clarke, of Arkansas, reminded the conference that if a scheme was devised for financing cotton at 12 cents a pound, and one-half of this year's crop was held off the market, that next year a full crop would be raised and every bank that had aided to finance the crop would face disaster.

Emergency Money May Suffice.

Senators Clarke, of Arkansas, Williams and Vardaman, of Mississippi, White, of Alabama, Simmons, of North Carolina, and others talked over the situation at length. Some of them thought that the emergency financial legislation to be passed by congress tomorrow might be all that will be necessary to enable the farmers to store their cotton crop until the war is over rather than be forced to rush it out when there is no European demand. In this way the price might be held up when the demand returns.

Methods of procuring transportation if there is a demand, also were discussed. The conference will meet again Wednesday to hear reports from the committee.

Senator Smith Commended.

Columbus, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) The Columbus Clearing House association today adopted resolutions commending the action of Senator Hoke Smith in calling a conference of senators and representatives with the view of arranging for government aid in handling the cotton crop.

Local bankers in interviews today expressed the opinion that the national government has the financial situation well in hand and that it will render all needed assistance in marketing the cotton crop.

Cotton Congress Called.

Columbia, S. C., August 3.—A special meeting of the Southern Cotton congress at Washington, August 13-14, was called today by E. J. Watson, president, to formulate plans for marketing the fall cotton crop.

Kaiser Orders His Ambassador in Paris to Demand Passports and Leave—France Admits German Force Has Entered Her Territory—England Completely Mobilized and Public Opinion Demands That She Fight Germany.

Brussels, August 3.—The Burgomaster of Antwerp announced tonight that the Germans had invaded Limburg, Holland, and that the province has been placed under martial law. Limburg has a population of nearly a quarter of a million.

Paris, August 3.—It was officially announced tonight that a German force had invaded France near Cirey.

London, August 3.—All the great European powers except Italy and most of the secondary powers are mobilizing with all their energy. Mobilization has not yet reached a stage where any of the armies have met in battle.

Italy, which declared her neutrality, will begin to mobilize officially tomorrow, although the process probably is well under way.

Great Britain's mobilization is nearly completed, but she has not announced that she will join in the general war.

Tonight war officially extended between Austria and Germany, on one side, and Russia, Servia and Montenegro on the other. There had been no official declaration of war between Germany and France on either side. But tonight the German ambassador in Paris received orders to demand his passports.

ENGLAND PLEDGED TO GUARD FRANCE FROM GERMAN NAVY

Sir Edward Grey Says the Kaiser's Fleet Will Not Be Allowed to Attack the French Coasts.

ENGLAND ALSO BOUND TO PROTECT BELGIUM

She Cannot Stand Aside if Germany Disregards Belgian Neutrality or Attacks the Coasts of France.

London, August 3.—Great Britain has mobilized her forces and awaits events. Today she is not a belligerent power, nor is she a neutral one.

The government has given France assurance that the British fleet will not permit the German fleet to attack the French coast. It has not yet pledged itself to contribute an army to the continental war.

The British government regards with the deepest distrust German's violation of Belgium's neutrality, but makes no declaration as to whether it considers that measure provocation for war.

This pronouncement of government policy—the result of two days' almost continuous deliberations—was made to the house of commons late today by Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs. Therefore the trying hour of suspense for the British people is prolonged indefinitely.

GERMANY URGING BRITISH NEUTRALITY.

GERMAN DEMAND ON BELGIUM.

The most important event in the past twenty-four hours was Germany's demand upon Belgium in the form of a 12-hour ultimatum, that the German troops be permitted to cross Belgium to the French frontier, coupled with the promise that Belgian integrity should remain unimpaired at the end of the war and that Belgium should be compensated.

To this Belgium refused to accede on the grounds of her rights and honor.

Sir Edward Grey, British secretary for foreign affairs, made a statement in the house of commons indicating that Great Britain's interests and obligations could not permit her to submit to the violation of Belgian territory. This virtually left the decision as to whether Great Britain should make war to public opinion.

timent is for war. The appeals of the pacifists get no hearing. Not one man in a hundred in London seemingly wants the nation to remain neutral.

Germany, through her diplomats, has tried to keep Britain out by a virtual offer to refrain from using her navy against France as the price of Great Britain's neutrality. But the English people clearly are convinced that their honor and vital interests compel them to protect Belgium, France and the other nations which are their closest neighbors.

DUTCH FIGHT GERMANY.

There is a report tonight that Holland has been invaded through the province of Limburg. The people of the Dutch Kingdom, resolved to go to any extremity, are said to be opening the dykes and flooding the country, which would make the passage of an army impossible.

THREE POLISH CITIES TAKEN BY GERMANS

Kaiser Is Throwing His Troops Across the Russian Frontier—No Opposition Is Reported by Russians.

Berlin, August 3.—The German troops from Lublinitz, Silesia, today, after a short skirmish with Russians, took possession of Czenstochowa, Russian Poland.

Bendzin and Kalish, Russian Poland, also have been occupied by the Germans.

Czenstochowa is a city of 50,000 inhabitants on the river Waethe near the Silesian frontier. It is noted chiefly for its manufactures of woolen and cotton cloths and paper.

Bendzin is a coal and zinc mining center. It has a population of slightly more than 20,000 about half of whom are Jews.

Kalish is the capital of the province of the same name. It is the most westerly city in Russian Poland. Its population of 20,000 is engaged in various manufactures.

Germany Accuses France.

An official communication regarding French acts of hostility against Germany was published here tonight. It said:

"The German troops hitherto have obeyed orders not to cross the French frontier. French troops, on the contrary, since yesterday, have made several attacks on the frontier posts without any declaration of war having been made.

"The French have crossed the frontier at several places in spite of the fact that the French government a few days ago informed us that it would not infringe on the unoccupied zone of six miles from the frontier and since last night companies of French troops have been in the occupation of a number of German villages.

"French army aeronauts have been flying over Baden and Bavaria yesterday and today throwing bombs and have violated Belgian neutrality by flying over Belgian territory into the province of the Rhine in an effort to destroy our railways.

"In this way France has opened the attack upon us and has established a state of war which has compelled the German empire to take measures for the security of its territory."

$250,000 TO ASSIST AMERICANS ABROAD

Washington, August 3.—Plans were virtually completed tonight for the care of Americans in war-torn Europe. Congress, at the request of President Wilson, appropriated $250,000 to care for the immediate needs of Americans, especially those without funds. More will be granted if desired.

Americans who have letters of credit or other forms of money credit will be assisted by American embassies in having them cashed. Instructions were issued to American diplomatic officers to issue "ambassadors' orders," in exchange for letters of credit, bank checks or money orders. Friends and relatives of Americans abroad can deposit any sum with the state department here and an embassy check for the amount will be issued in Europe.

To make permanent arrangements for the financial accomodation of American citizens in Europe, Secretaries Bryan and McAdoo have arranged with New York banking houses to co-operate with American embassies abroad. The plan was discussed at conferences tonight between Secretary Bryan, Secretary McAdoo and representatives of New York banking houses.

No definite arrangements have been made about ships. Army and navy officers say their transports are inadequate and many are not available. Secretary Bryan tomorrow will discuss the subject with a representative of the International Merchants Marine.

FLETCHER AND PARTY MAROONED IN PARIS.

Washington, August 3.—Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, with about fifty other Americans, representing the Southern Commercial congress, are marooned at the American embassy in Paris. Word of their plight reached Senator Fletcher's friends here today.

The delegation had intended to remain in Europe thirty days longer but cancelled their plans and are endeavoring to get passage for the United States.

In the party are:

NEGRO HIGHWAYMAN KILLED BY MILITIA

Two members of Battery B engaged in a lively skirmish last night about 10 o'clock with a band of negro desperadoes in Sinkowitz alley, just off Pratt and Decatur streets, with the result that an alleged negro highwayman, named Cliff Howell, of 35-B Taylor street, known to the police as "Smoots," was riddled with bullets, and a negro woman slightly wounded.

The soldiers were searching the neighborhood for a member of Battery B, who had failed to pay a court-martial fine of $10, and was to be sent to the Fulton Tower to serve ten days instead.

The soldiers were Sergeant G. J. McGriff, 24 years old, of 111 North Jackson street, and Corporal I. W. Jackson, 21 years old, of 20 Fitzgerald street.

A tip was given them that they could find their man somewhere on Pratt street, where they had been to search the neighborhood for him. They had turned their steps back to the armory, when, at the entrance of Sinkowitz alley, a band of negroes attacked them.

Before McGriff could get his revolver out a brickbat had struck him in his mouth. He quickly reached for his gun and shot at the negro before he could secure another brickbat. He fired twice, according to his statement. About the same time Corporal Jackson opened fire. Three bullets hit Howell. He was rushed to the Grady hospital, where he died a few minutes later.

Policemen Knight and Ford rushed to the scene of the conflict, and the two young men immediately surrendered. They were carried to headquarters, where they were held under the charge of murder, awaiting a coroner's inquest, which will be held this morning.

Plain Clothes Policemen Milam and Watson went to the hospital to look at the negro who had been killed. They recognized him as one "Smoots," for whom they had been looking for some time.

M'MICHAEL SOLICITORS GENERAL BILL IS LOST

House Favors Popular Election of Municipal Court Judges and Officials.

The McMichael solicitors general bill was killed by a very decisive vote in the house Monday morning. It was lost by the house declining to agree to the report of the committee. The bill is the last of other such measures introduced in the house to abolish fees for solicitors general and put them on salaries. It provided for a sliding scale of salaries according to the population of the various circuits.

Those who spoke against the bill were: Mr. Fullbright, of Burke; Mr. Hardeman, of Jefferson; Mr. Myrick, of Chatham, and Mr. Piquett, of Richmond. Mr. McMichael was the only one to speak for the bill.

The house passed by a unanimous vote a bill to authorize the governor to issue refunding bonds to the amount of $3,679,000 for the purpose of taking up the state bonds that fall due in June of next year.

Municipal Court Judges.

A bill to make elective by the people the judges, the chief clerk and the chief marshal of the municipal court of Atlanta, was rushed through the house Monday morning. It was passed by a vote of 99 to 6. It was stated that the bill would be immediately transmitted to the senate. There was no opposition to the measure in the house as the Fulton delegation, Messrs. Blackburn, Smith and Cochrane, presented a united front, or, at least, no one spoke in opposition.

The bill was first voted on favorably by the house special judiciary committee, then was recommitted by request and the next time received an unfavorable report. It was placed on the Monday calendar by the rules committee, read a third time and passed.

There may be a fight on the bill in the senate.

The judges of the municipal court are now appointed by the judges of the superior court, and confirmed by the governor. The marshals and clerks are appointed by the judges of the municipal court.

Court Procedure Bill.

One of the most important bills that has been before the present session of the legislature is a senate bill which regulates court procedure in the state. The bill was prepared by a joint commission, as follows: Judge A. J. Cobb and Hon. Lee Branch, appointed by the governor; Senators Erwin and Elkins, and Representatives Culpepper, of Meriwether; Hopkins, of Thomas, and Cheney, of Cobb. The bill has been passed by the senate and was read the first time in the house Monday. It was referred to a joint meeting of the two house judiciary committees and will be acted on Tuesday afternoon.

The following resolution was introduced in the house:

"To authorize the board of trustees of the Georgia School of Technology to borrow $35,000 with which to complete a power plant on the campus." The resolution was referred to committee on education.

A bill that provides for the sale of pure beer in Georgia and which was reported unfavorably by the temperance committee of the house, was placed on the calendar on motion of Mr. Wohlwender, of Muscogee. The bill goes to the head of the calendar.

A senate resolution was adopted by the house which provides for a report by a joint committee in regard to a more expedient method of registration of land titles.

MEETING SUGGESTED TO CARE FOR COTTON

Commissioner of Agriculture James D. Price, who is secretary of the association of Commissioners of Agriculture of the south, Monday wired the president of that organization suggesting that, in view of the crisis which now faces the southern farmer as the result of the war in Europe, a meeting of the commissioners be called for August 10 to be held in Mr. Price's office, to devise ways and means for caring for the south's cotton.

Mr. Price is deeply impressed with the gravity of the situation that confronts the southern farmer, but he feels that this situation can be met and a solution reached.

The farmers of the west are not menaced as are those of the south, for wheat and all grains will go up, while cotton is sure to be hit hard.

WILL CALL MASS MEETING.

Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton association, is arranging the preliminary details for calling a mammoth mass meeting of farmers, bankers, merchants and all allied interests of the cotton industry in the south. The meeting will probably be called at New Orleans.

In an interview with The Constitution, Mr. Jordan said:

"With six of the leading countries in Europe which consume American cotton likely to be involved in a prolonged war, it is imperative that every business interest in the south prepare to prevent in every possible way the depressing influences of low-priced cotton.

Two-thirds of the cotton crop grown each year is exported to the countries which are now involved in war. If these exports are seriously interfered with, the demand for spot cotton will be limited and very low prices to the farmers result.

"To devise ways and means for so marketing the crop as to regulate the supply and prevent financial disaster to our people is the purpose of calling all the cotton interests together at this time.

"This was done in January, 1905, and by enthusiastic and determined co-operation a financial disaster was averted.

"I believe that if strong delegations of farmers, merchants and bankers of the various cotton states will now come together in convention, for the specific purpose of undertaking to solve the present problem which confronts the south on the question of handling the cotton crop, that success will attend their efforts.

"The situation right now is most serious and prompt, effective steps must be taken at once if relief for the cotton growers and the general business interests of the south is to be had.

"I am sending out a large number of telegrams to leading farmers and bankers throughout the cotton states and will know within the next few days the definite time and place for calling the convention."

ABSENTEE MEMBERS NEEDED IN CONGRESS

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, August 3.—(Special.)—Members of congress who are now away from Washington are urged to hurry back to maintain a quorum.

It was agreed today by the house leaders that whenever a quorum fails to appear hereafter the sergeant-at-arms will be directed to go out and arrest members and bring them in.

Representative Underwood explains that this drastic course was made necessary to meet any exigency that might arise from the European war situation.

The members of the Georgia delegation now in Washington are Representatives Adamson, Howard, Park, Lee, Bartlett and Tribble. Representative Bartlett is still ill and unable to attend the house sessions.

ENGLAND IS PLEDGED TO PROTECT FRANCE

London is exerting every effort of diplomacy to induce Great Britain to hold aloof from the conflict and to bring public opinion to Germany's side. The counselor of the German embassy issued a strong apeal for the neutrality of Great Britain, asserting that Germany would agree to keep her fleet from attacking the northern and western coasts of Fance if England would pledge neutality, and agued that England would gain more in the end by standing outside the European war and using her influence as mediator when the moment was ripe.

Referring to this suggestion the British foreign secretary said:

"I have only heard that shortly before I came to the house."

He raised his voice and rapped the table before him sharply, declaring:

"But that is far too narrow an engagement."

BIG QUESTION NOT ANSWERED.

Sir Edward Grey dispelled the shadows of doubt which flickered over the triple entente in the minds of many liberals by exposing some milestones in the history of the Rapprochment, revealing it as essentially a national one with France, without definite obligations.

Finally, on the one tremendously vital question—a question upon the answer of which the British empire and the whole world are hanging—whether the government considers that Germany's policy compels Great Britain to wage war, the foreign secretary left an impression of doubt.

That doubt may reflect the mind of a cabinet not wholly unanimous, and the interpretation drawn by many is that Sir Edward Grey's speech to Germany was a hint that if she will keep her soldiers off Belgian soil and her battleships away from the coast of France, that will be the price of Great Britain's armed neutrality.

Sir Edward Grey to Commons.

Sir Edward Grey requested the house of commons to approach the consideration of the European crisis from the point of view of British interests, British honor and British obligations.

Sir Edward again requested the house to deal with the issue before it without passion, and he added:

"When the documents are made public it will be seen how genuinely and whole-heartedly we have made efforts to preserve the peace."

Dealing with the question of Great Britain's obligations, Sir Edward said:

"I gave no promise, but I told both French and German ambassadors that if war was forced on France public opinion in the British isles would rally to France."

This part of the speech was received with loud cheering.

Sir Edward added that if a foreign fleet came down the English channel to bombard the French coast, "we could not stand aside."

England's Pledge to France.

He continued:

"I gave the assurance to the French ambassador last night that if the German fleet goes into the English channel or into the North sea to attack French shipping or the French coast, the British fleet will give all the protection in its power.

"That answer is subject to the approval of parliament. It is not a declaration of war.

"I understand that the German government would be prepared if we would pledge ourselves to neutrality to agree that its fleet would not attack the northern coast of France.

"That is far too narrow an agreement."

The house broke out into cheers at this remark.

British Interests at Stake.

The foreign secretary then asked the house to consider what British interests were at stake, "if in a crisis like this we were to run away." This was greeted with loud cheers and Sir Edward continued:

"Do not imagine that if a great power stands aside in a war like this it is going to be in a position to exert its influence at the end.

"We must be prepared—and we are prepared to face the consequences of using all our strength at any moment—we know not how soon—to defend ourselves.

'If the situation develops as it seems probable it will develop, we shall face it.

"I believe when the country realizes what is at stake, it will support the government with determination, with resolution and endurance."

Roars of Cheering.

From all parts of the house there came roars of cheering.

In a preceding part of his discourse while discussing the question of Belgium, Sir Edward had said:

"If in a crisis of this kind we ran away from our obligations of honor and interest with regard to the Belgian treaty, I doubt whether whatever material force we might possess, at the end would be of much value in face of the respect we should have lost.

"If we engaged in war we should suffer but little more than if we stood aside.

"The present crisis has not originated in a matter which principally concerns France. No government and no country had less desire to be involved in the Austro-Servian dispute than France. France was involved because of its obligations of honor.

"We have a long standing friendship with France. As to how far that friendship entails obligations let every man look into his own heart and feelings and construe the extent of our obligations."

GREAT STRIKE AVERTED BY PRESIDENT WILSON

Washington, August 3.—Managers of ninety-eight western railroads, urged by President Wilson to place patriotism above property interests, consented today to arbitrate their differences with 55,000 enginemen and firemen and prevented what threatened to be one of the most extensive transportation strikes the country has seen.

The railroad men consented to present the case for settlement in a way already approved by employees and the federal board of mediation to avert what the president characterized as a "national disaster," although they realized, and President Wilson pointed out, that all the merits of their side could not be taken into consideration.

Has a Cure For Pellagra

Parrie Nicholas, Laurel, Miss., writes: "Seems to me if I had not obtained your remedy when I did I would not have lived much longer. I am glad you discovered this wonderful remedy that will cure Pellagra. When I began taking Baughn's Pellagra Remedy my weight was 60-odd pounds; now it is 90-odd. I would like to have this published and sent to sufferers of Pellagra."

This is published at her request. If you suffer from Pellagra or know of anyone who suffers from Pellagra it is your duty to consult the resourceful Baughn, who has fought and conquered the dreaded malady right in the Pellagra Belt of Alabama.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off; sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red with much mucous and choking; indigestion and nausea; either diarrhoea or constipation.

There is hope if you have Pellagra you can be cured by Baughn's Pellagra Remedy. Get a big free book on Pellagra. Address American Compounding Co., Box 2003, Jasper, Ala., remembering money is refunded in any case where the remedy fails to cure.—(adv.)

SHOOTS SHERIFF AND KILLS SELF

Buford, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—T. M. Vandiver, a prosperous farmer, was found dying of self-inflicted wounds at his home one mile south of here this afternoon by a posse organized to capture him for the shooting of Sheriff J. R. Shadburn, a short time previously. Vandiver breathed his last just after the posse arrived. Sheriff Shadburn, although he received two loads in the back and one in the side from Vandiver's shotgun, is expected to recover.

Shadburn, who is sheriff of the city court of Buford, armed with a warrant charging Vandiver with wife-beating, went to the farmer's home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon to serve the paper. He was accompanied by Sheriff E. S. Garner, of Gwinnett county, who also had papers to serve against Vandiver.

The two officers, meeting Vandiver in a field, were asked to accompany him to his house. Leaving the two sheriffs outside, Vandiver, it is reported, entered, secured a shotgun and, leaping from a window, attempted to escape through a cotton patch. When Sheriff Shadburn shot at him, Vandiver is said to have turned around and fired at the officer three times, each charge taking effect.

Sheriff Garner immediately rushed his badly-wounded comrade back to Buford, where a posse was formed to return for Vandiver. Upon reaching the scene the posse found that the farmer had evaded capture by fatally shooting himself with the same gun he had used upon Shadburn.

Vandiver was about 40 years old, and leaves a wife and two children.

To Regulate Sponge Fishing.

Washington, August 3.—The house today passed the Sparkman bill to regulate sponge fishing in the Gulf of Mexico and the Florida straits outside state jurisdiction. The bill also contains regulations for the landing and curing of sponges.

CHILD LABOR BILL ONE STEP NEARER BECOMING A LAW

Senator Ford Breaks Tie When Measure Comes Up Before Senate Committee for Consideration.

CHANGES ARE FAVORED IN BURGLARY PENALTY

House Committee Adverses Bill to Raise Age of Consent From Ten to Fourteen Years.

The Sheppard child labor bill was reported favorably by the committee on commerce and labor of the senate yesterday afternoon by a vote of 3 to 2. This bill passed the house last week.

Senator Ford, chairman of the committee, was called upon to break the tie, and he cast his vote for the bill. Senators Watts and Kea favored the bill, while Senators Converse and Longino were not present. Senators Perry and Turner voted against a favorable recommendation.

Thirty minutes was allotted to each side for a hearing before the committee. Mrs. Warren Boyd and William S. Wier spoke for the bill, and Lee Jordan, representing the Cotton Manufacturers' association of Georgia; Allen F. Johnson, president of the Exposition Cotton mills, and F. B. Gordon, president of the Columbus Manufacturing company, spoke against it.

These Bills Favored.

The general judiciary committee of the senate reported the following bills favorably:

By Senator Harrell—To make reports of proceedings of court trials taken by court stenographers binding upon trial judges.

By Messrs. Beck and Hines—To authorize county commissioners to fix the compensation of official court reporters in the criminal courts of the counties of this state with the exception of counties having more than 150,000 population.

By Senator McNeil—To amend an act establishing the city court of Macon.

By Senator Kea—To make it unlawful to discharge firearms or fireworks on the public highways or streets of this state.

Bills Are Adversed.

The following bills were reported adversely:

By Senator Tyson—To increase the pay of jurors from $2 to $3 per day in the superior courts.

By Senator Moore—To make unlawful the publishing or printing in any newspaper, magazine or other publication any matter, statement or article reflecting on the virtue, character or chastity of any female without publishing her name.

By Senator Sweat—To authorize the trial of all criminal offenses except where penalty is capital punishment, upon information filed by solicitors.

Consolidate Returns.

The state and national elections are to be consolidated under a bill that has been passed by the senate and was acted on favorably by the house committee on general judiciary No. 2, Monday afternoon. The bill provides that the election of all state and county officers shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, when the national and congressional elections are held, instead of on the first Wednesday after the first Monday. A companion bill follows which will make the terms of office for all state and county officers four instead of two years.

Another important bill acted on favorably by the same committee was one to amend the criminal code relative to the punishment for burglary. The present law provides a punishment, upon conviction, of a sentence of from one to twenty years. The amendment before the committee provides that if dynamite, nitroglycerin, or any other explosive is used to force an entrance into a building or safe, the term of imprisonment shall be not less than ten years nor more than twenty, at hard labor.

The committee also voted favorably on a bill making it unlawful for any person or persons to give utterance to, circulate, or cause to be circulated in a public way or place, any false, slanderous, or untruthful statement of or concerning any person holding or running for a public office.

Many Bills Turned Down.

The same committee reported adversely on the following bills:

To amend the code so as to provide that all sums collected under the commutation tax shall be expended on the public roads in the militia district in which said sums were collected.

To regulate the inspection of asylums, sanitariums, convents, etc.

To prescribe that when a jury recommends that a person who has been convicted of a felony be punished as for a misdemeanor, it shall be binding upon the judge to so sentence.

To regulate the rights, powers and disabilities of aliens and of certain companies, associations and corporations with respect to property in this state and to provide for escheats in certain cases.

To provide for the prompt payment of the public school teachers, to regulate the manner of keeping and paying the public school funds, and to fix priority of payment thereof.

To make it unlawful to sell or dispose of crops if a lien has been created thereon.

To provide for the relief of temporary administrators and their bondsmen in certain cases.

Age of Consent Unchanged.

To change the age of consent from ten to fourteen years.

To provide that the jury commissioners shall appoint a clerk other than the clerk of the superior court.

To provide that the construction of sewers shall be defined as extraordinary expenses of a municipality.

To provide that if a note sued upon is $500 or more the fees shall be fixed by the jury.

The house committee on hygiene reported favorably on a bill to create the office of inspector of hotels and to regulate the operation of hotels, apartment houses and boarding houses and to provide for license fees to be collected therefrom.

The house committee on county and county matters acted favorably on a bill to amend the act creating the city court of Douglas.

War Stopped in Emanuel County.

While the war clouds are hovering so threateningly over Europe, a statement that civil war might result in a Georgia county if a certain legislative bill was passed, alarmed members of the house committee on special judiciary Monday afternoon.

Representative J. L. Herrington, of Emanuel county, made the declaration of war when he said:

"If the bill before this committee to create the city court of Swainsboro, in Emanuel county, becomes a law we will have war down in my county, and I will have to get my passports by mail and never go back home again. We had a city court and we abolished it because of rotten politics. We were bogged up to our eyes with rotten politics over that city court. The people voted on it and we voted against it by 5 to 1."

Representative I. S. Woods, of Emanuel county, said that he wanted the bill passed so that the people could vote on it. "If the people want the city court I say let them have it," he said. "If they don't want it they oughtn't to have it. Pass the bill so the people can have a vote on it is all that I ask."

Other citizens of Emanuel county agreed with Mr. Woods and asked that the committee pass the bill with the provision that it be submitted to the people.

The committee turned down the bill and there will be no war in Emanuel county, and Mr. Herrington can safely return home.

Oppose These Bills.

The same committee voted against the following bills: To provide four terms for the superior court of Habersham county; to put the solicitor general of the Richmond county circuit on a salary.

The committee acted favorably on the following bills: To abolish the city court of Monroe county; to amend the act creating the Bryan county court.

The general judiciary committee No. 1 of the house acted favorably on the following bills: To provide that coupons on state bonds may be collected without having the signature of the state treasurer; to relieve J. L. Waters of a $500 bond that he signed for Norah Martin, in Sumter county, Martin having escaped and been recaptured.

The committee disapproved the following bills: To authorize the payment of officials in the Toombs county circuit in misdemeanor cases; to provide additional remedies for the reinstatement of disbarred attorneys.

GEORGIA HAS LARGEST GRAPEVINE IN WORLD

The largest grapevine in the world is claimed by J. F. Willingham, of Stockbridge, Ga., who was in Atlanta Monday on his way with his wife to Borden Wheeler Springs, Ala., for a several weeks' visit. The vine, asserted Mr. Willingham, is five and a half feet in circumference at the base of the trunk. The harbor is fifty by a hundred feet, making the vine cover an area of 5,000 square feet. Some of the branches are over fifty feet long, and several years ago two-thirds of the crop of grapes yielded sixty gallons of juice. The vine was planted Mr. Willingham in 1873 from a cut-the currency that is necessary is in circulation at this time."

BILLION DOLLARS IN NEW CURRENCY

There probably never was another day in the history of the country on which such a variety of comprehensive measures was put into force. Banks of large cities throughout the country decided to issue clearing house certificate to furnish an additional medium of circulation in settlement of transactions among banks. Many million dollars of Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency were shipped to financial centers. The recent enormous outflow of gold to Europe was believed to have been stopped effectually.

It took several hours of rapid work this morning to put these steps into operation.

Until that had been accomplished the financial district was under a strain, but as the hours passed without serious difficulties the tension relaxed until at the close of the day Wall street was abnormally dull.

Withdrawals from banks were not large enough to signify widespread public uneasiness.

More Currency Than Ever.

As a result of today's action there now is in circulation more currency than at any previous time in the history of the country. Clearing house certificates of $20,000,000 were issued today, and it was expected that further large amounts would be demanded shortly. During the 1907 panic the maximum amount of certificates issued was $103,000,000.

During the time clearing house certificates are in circulation the weekly detailed bank statement will not be issued.

Stock exchange brokers today settled down for a long period of inactivity, for it was the general opinion that the market would not be reopened for several weeks. Commission houses reported a considerable demand for stocks from investors.

Efforts were made to stop transactions in stocks by irresponsible private concerns, some of which, taking advantage of the suspension of the exchange, endeavored to set themselves up in business. A committee of stock exchange brokers was appointed to appeal to newspaper publishers to reject objectionable advertisements from such persons.

FELDER ADDRESSES HAZLEHURST VOTERS

Hazlehurst, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Hon. Thomas S. Felder, candidate for the short term United States senate, spoke here today in a theater to a large crowd. Mr. Felder was introduced by Rev. J. W. Witherington, pastor of the Baptist church at this place.

He made his usual speech here, attacking Governor Slaton on his record of twenty years and stated that he was a trained politician and in his twenty years had never passed any constructive legislation except the tax act and that he was the daddy of that baby and could not shove it off in Felder's lap for him to nurse.

He attacked Hardwick on his record as a congressman and said the people would never have known that Hardwick had been in the national congress had not he, Hardwick, told it.

Mr. Felder was well received by the audience and was repeatedly applauded and after the speaking many shook hands with him and assured him of their support.

Possibly.

He—Ah, darling, I could not live without you!

She—Why, that's just what papa says!

CRACKERS DROP DOUBLE-HEADER

Edited By Dick Jemison

AL O'DELL BREAKS FIELDING RECORD

Has Gone for Thirty-Two Consecutive Games at Third Base Without Making a Bobble.

Al O'Dell, third baseman of the Mobile Gulls, has established a Southern league fielding record that will probably stand for some time to come. And he may make it still larger.

When he handled two put-outs and two assists at third base cleanly in Monday's game with Birmingham, O'Dell went his thirty-second consecutive game without making a bobble.

Sunday he was tied with Bill Lindsay, of New Orleans, each having gone thirty-one consecutive games without a bobble. Bill broke his streak last week. O'Dell is still going.

In the thirty-two games Al has handled forty-eight put-outs and seventy-six assists.

This Fan Asks Removal of League President

Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor Atlanta Constitution: "I know you receive a good many letters, especially just at this time, when the sailing is so rough, but let the writer ask that you read just a little note from him.

"I believe I express the sentiments of of each and every loyal fan in this building, of which there are something like 150 or 200, when I say let's get together and prevail on the presidents of the different clubs in the league to vote for the removal of Judge Kavanaugh and replace him with Charlie Frank, our old friend, and in getting rid of President Kavanaugh, we will in turn get rid of some of the incompetents that pose as umpires in this league.

"To say that the grand old game in this league is daily turned into a farce on account of these incompetents, is putting it mildly and unless something is done, and that soon to improve the conditions, this league will be the laughing stock of organized baseball.

"Assuring you the support of every loyal fan connected with the Southern railway and with kindest regards,

(Signed) "G. T. LATIMER."

WESTERN TENNIS TITLE IS WON BY ALEXANDER SQUAIR

Chicago, August 3.—Alexander Squair, of Chicago, won the western tennis championship by defeating Clarence Griffin, of San Francisco, the title holder, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2 and 6-0. Griffin reported in poor condition for the challenge round and was outclassed.

Resolute Wins.

Newport, R. I., August 3.—Resolute won the forty-mile race sailed today against the Corinthian sloop Vanitie in the trials to select a defender for the America's cup. It was a close finish with the Resolute only 11 seconds ahead when they crossed the finish line.

Berger and Renfer Hold Cracker Batters Easily; Vols Win Both Games

By Paul W. Treanor.

Nashville, Tenn., August 3.—Although Nashville won the first game clearly by four to one, the same darkness that caused the tie of Sunday and possibly an Atlanta victory was a factor in the Crackers today losing the second contest, which the Volunteers also annexed by a score of 4 to 2.

Gibson went in as a pinch hitter in the place of Renfer with two men out, and Williams and Smith on bases, and put forth the necessary rap that prevented another tie. It was so dark with a heavy rain oncoming that luck was with Gibby, for when he drove the ball toward McConnell the latter was simply not able to see it. This served to bring Williams and Smith across the pan, as they had previously advanced on the bases.

Score in First.

The Crackers started the first contest with a vim, putting over a run in the first inning on hits by Bisland and Kircher. Browning was in the box and was inclined to be batted rather freely, as he gave up eleven bingles at various stages. The fast field work of the Crackers, however, cut down the runs and hits considerably at that, for they worked off a couple of fast doubles.

Still, a factor for the Atlanta loss lay in the fact that Heinie Berger allowed but four scattering hits. There were threats of scoring by Atlanta at various times, only for them to be nipped.

The Volunteers got busy in the first inning of the first game, also putting over two runs, when four straight hits were rapped off of Browning.

In the fifth the Volunteers secured another run when Smith led off with a two-bagger and was brought over the plate by Dodge.

The other score came in the eighth when Hemingway scored Paulet, the result of two hits.

Second Game.

The second fracas was in the hands of Renfer for the Volunteers and Thompson for the Crackers as hurling idols and this the Crackers secured but three hits, while the Nashvillians accumulated a total of 10.

As in the first seance, the Crackers made a tally in the first inning of the second game, when Long crossed the plate on the strength of one lone hit. The run was brought in by Welchonce on a long fly to left.

Another run was made in the third, when Dunn smote for two bags, Thompson advanced him to third on a bunt and Long brought him in with a long fly to center.

Nashville's runs came in the third, sixth and eighth innings. Thompson was free with passes, allowing six and this coupled with bunched hits, tells the story.

Timely raps by Callahan, Dodge, Smith, Williams, Hemingway and finally Gibson turned the trick, with rapidly oncoming darkness aiding in the windup.

Renfer gave up two passes in one inning, the seventh, but Atlanta failed to take advantage of the gifts.

One contest will be staged tomorrow.

KAVANAUGH RAISES BILL'S SUSPENSION

Pending Personal Investigation Which Will Probably Take Place Sunday.

President W. M. Kavanaugh, of the Southern league, temporarily raised the suspension of Manager Smith yesterday for his run-in with Umpire Win Kellum here last Wednesday.

Kavanaugh raised the suspension of Billy in a wire to President Callaway, of the local club, informing the local mogul that he would lift it pending a personal investigation by him (Kavanaugh).

The judge did not state just when this investigation would be held, but as the local club requested that President Kavanaugh be in Memphis Sunday with Kellum when the Crackers play there, it is thought that it will be held on that date.

The outcome of the judge's investigation is awaited with interest. Maybe while he is in Memphis he will take a look at Kircher on the coaching lines.

Crackers Must Get Together; Hitting and Pitching Poor; Not Playing Consistently

By Dick Jemison.

It is high time that the Crackers got together and went to playing some real baseball. They have played inconsistently all season, good one day and bad the next.

Unless they get together and put their best foot forward within the next few days they will be lucky if they finish in the first division.

They have been cursed by bad luck and poor umpiring throughout the season, but neither excuses poor ball playing, and there has been a lot of this all year.

It takes runs to win ball games and hits to make runs. Both have been strangers to the Crackers for the past month. The team is in an unexplainable hitting slump. Batting slumps can never be explained.

There are enough good hitters on the Atlanta team to break up ball game after ball game practically every day. But for the past thirty days, even the best hitters have been as helpless as babes, even before pitchers like Day, Roth and Berger, of gloves and prayers fame.

What's the matter? We pass the buck to Manager Smith for answer.

Due Criticism.

Legitimate criticism is not knocking and no ball player, ball club or manager can so construe it. The Crackers have got some l. c. coming to them and they're going to get it.

Since July 1 the Crackers have engaged in thirty-two battles. In but nine of these games have they been able to register more than three runs, scoring four runs in five games and five in four others. In ten games they made three runs; in two, no runs; in two, two runs, and in nine, one run.

But four times in these thirty-two games have they been able to make their hits go into the double figures and two of the four games were thirteen-inning ties.

There's the principal answer in a nutshell to the Crackers' inability to win with any consistency.

The Inconsistency

In the first part of the season the boys were tearing the cover off the ball, only to boot them in the field, or have the pitchers permit the opposition to overcome three to seven runs leads.

The pitching tightened and then the hitting fell off. Both got going only to have the fielding upset the dope. Now everything seems to be wrong at once.

Individually, the team looks as good as any in the league. Collectively, well that's another matter. There is a screw loose somewhere. Maybe Bill Smith will find it, but he had better locate it quickly.

The whole team is an enigma. We fail to see, looking at the players and their records and knowing their ability, why they do not win a good majority of their games. But they don't. That's why we register this criticism.

Come on, lads, get at 'em today. Let's break that hitting slump. Switch once in a while and hit that first ball. Cut out the sacrifice and smash away at the old first ball pitched now and then.

You've played the game according to Hoyle all season with poor results. Why not go up and hit under any conditions, whether it is good baseball or not. Chattanooga romped for the first two months with that kind of play. There is not that much playing time left.

A little romping now would certainly help. Try it out. You can't do any worse, that's a cinch.

The Kircher Case.

One cannot but sympathize in the roar of the Cracker fans against the prohibition of any coaching by George Kircher. Kircher went on the lines at Atlanta Friday and was promptly "shoved" and fined.

The games in the Southern league this year have been dull enough, long-drawn-out, and many of them have been tiresome. Some little comedy is a good thing, but when the comedy doesn't reach the verge of horse play and cheap vaudeville.

We have heard many Chattanooga fans long for the jokes of Lou Castro, as they used to enjoy them in the days of 1909. A good comedian on any team is worth several hundred people at the gate every day.

President Kavanaugh is right in his contention that a baseball game is not a vaudeville show; but there is no need of making it a funeral.

The human element is a necessity to the virility of baseball.

The fans, if they are to enjoy the sport, must realize that those who play it are real, live human beings, whose brain and heart are put into every play.

Human beings talk and move. You can't have too much talk or too much motion on the ballfield, so long as it is directed into proper or unoffending channels.

All season the cry of the fans in this league has been for "life, life, more life in the games."

While we recognize that Judge Kavanaugh is sincere in his position, we believe that the league president is making a grave mistake when he issues orders to take from the game that very element for which the fans are pleading—whose absence is being felt daily at the box office.—Chattanooga Times.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY WILL MEET AUGUST 26-27

Albany, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The annual convention of the Georgia State Agricultural society will be held at Albany, August 26-27. A full program of attractive numbers—embracing some of the finest speakers in the state—will be issued this week. The usual dates were advanced on account of the democratic state-wide primary election.

GOV. SLATON EXPLAINS TAX LAW AT FAIRBURN

Crowd Packs Courthouse to Hear Exposition of Equalization Act.

Fairburn, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Governor John M. Slaton, at noon today, delivered one of the most telling orations ever heard here. The courthouse was crowded to the limit and several prominent ladies, including the governor's wife, were present.

The speech was free from politics, and it was a most masterful exposition of the tax equalization law. The governor spoke about an hour and a quarter, and was listened to with the closest attention by the big crowd to the finish, and as he ended it was evident that his eloquent words, dealing in facts, had found lodgment in the minds of all his hearers.

Randolph Anderson, president of the senate and candidate for governor, and T. W. Hardwick, candidate for the short-term senatorship, are both advertised to address the people of this county at the noon hour and during recess of court here tomorrow—Tuesday. A large crowd will hear them. Both have friends here.

Local politics is warming up with the recent entrance in the field as candidates for representative, J. H. Cook, of near College Park, and J. H. Reeves, of Fairburn, with D. B. Bullard, the present incumbent, who is seeking re-election, and Oscar Parker, of Fairburn, who was the first to announce, make a four-cornered fight for the place that grows in interest as August 19 approaches.

JUDGE NAT HARRIS SPEAKS AT DUBLIN

Dublin, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Judge Nat Harris spoke here this morning in the courthouse. He was introduced by J. R. Sams. A big crowd gave him an enthusiastic reception. Judge Harris talked much of confederate veterans. He stated he would do his utmost to reduce the tax rate if elected.

He said his experience as a railroad operator fitted him specially for handling the lease of the state road. He attacked the charge that he is too old, saying that he is only 68, no older than Candler or Gordon, former governors.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FORMED AT EASTMAN

Eastman, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) At a very enthusiastic meeting of the business men of Eastman held a few days ago a chamber of commerce was organized. Colonel J. H. Roberts was elected temporary chairman and B. S. Keith was elected temporary secretary.

A committee consisting of Dr. J. D. Herrman, Rev. Alex W. Bealer and T. H. Prince was appointed to nominate a permanent president and secretary. The committee nominated LeRoy Pharr, cashier of the First National bank, as president, and B. S. Keith, editor of the Dodge County Herald, as secretary. The nominees were elected. The chairman then appointed W. J. Anderson, LeRoy Pharr and O. J. Franklin as a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws.

The following were appointed as a committee to call on every business man in Eastman and give him a chance to become a member: Sol Herrman, James Bishop, Jr., Joe Peacock, H. L. Johnson, E. E. Persons and B. W. Harrell.

RAWLINGS DEFENDS SELF IN IRBY CASE

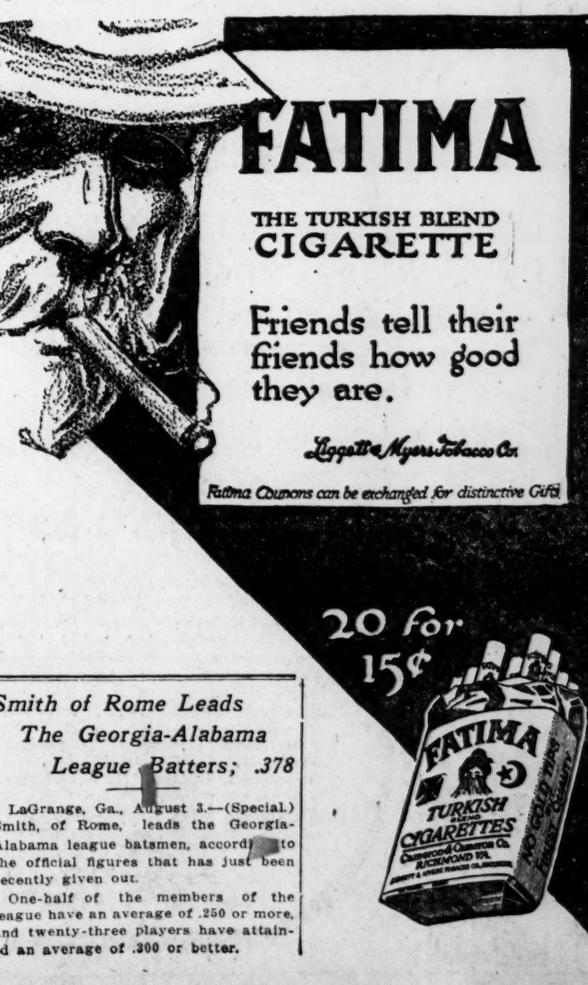

Louisville, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Judge B. T. Rawlings spoke to a good sized audience here today in behalf of his candidacy for congress. He took occasion to score Evans and Vinson, but said nothing about Reynolds.

He defended his position with the Irby case and contended that he was only doing his duty in upholding the law. He showed that Vinson was a member of the judiciary committee in the legislature that passed the change of the new act and now Vinson is fighting him in this campaign for employing the very act that he, Vinson, had helped to pass. Judge Rawlings warned the people against deception and pleaded for supremacy of the law, besides giving out briefly his platform.

The healthfulness and purity of Crystal Pale Beer compares with open air and sunshine

That is the reason that this beer proves such a welcome addition on outings and excursions.

In Switzerland
that healthy and prosperous country, "Temperance Restaurants" sell beer and wine as a matter of course, but no spirits.

The crystal water of a mountain spring is not purer than our brew—it is not more healthful or more wholesome.

And as we have told you—beer—brewed and aged like Crystal Pale, then freshly tapped, freshly bottled, freshly delivered, is a beer as good as beer can be—the utmost in the brewer's art.

You can pay more for beer—you cannot get more in quality and betterness.

MERCHANTS HERE FOR BIG MEETING

Members of Southern Association Will Be Guests at Smoker and Buffet Supper at 7:30 O'Clock Tonight.

Merchants from all sections of the south began coming into Atlanta early Monday morning for the two weeks' session of the Southern Merchants' assembly, and by the time the first business meeting is held tonight it is expected that 400 visitors will be in attendance. In all between 3,000 and 4,000 visitors will come to Atlanta to meet the Atlanta merchants and each other and to do business.

Scarcely had the registration and information bureau of the assembly opened its doors on the first floor of the Chamber of Commerce building Monday morning when it found business at hand. The earliest trains brought merchants and all trains thereafter brought more merchants. The prospects are bright for the biggest and most effective meeting of the sort that has ever been held in the southern states.

Spend Day Seeing City.

As the arrivals came in they were met at the trains by reception committees from Atlanta's merchants and escorted to the Chamber of Commerce building for registration, and were afterwards directed to their hotels. This done the visitors spent Monday seeing the city, either in the company of members of Atlanta business firms or upon their own hooks.

And, truly, with what the visiting merchants will see and do on their own initiative and with what the Merchants and Manufacturers' association of Atlanta, under whose auspices the meeting is being held, has planned for them there will be somewhat of both seeing and doing before the two weeks are over.

As each man is registered he is given a badge which is a passport to any place that may strike his fancy, and likewise he is given tickets, invitations and information that are likely of pleasure and business enough to gratify the most fastidious.

Although Monday, being the first day of the assembly, was not banked on as much of a business day, many local merchants reported good sales and all declared that the visitors are displaying much interest in the wares that are offered.

The piece de resistance of the assembly on Monday was a theater party at the Bijou. It had been planned to give the visitors a taste of Hughie Cardoza's vaudeville at the Forsyth theater, but the end of the season having come last Saturday night made this impossible.

"Meller" Melodrama.

At the Bijou last night more than 100 visitors were the guests of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association to see the Jewell Kelley Stock company present "Dora Thorne." In this they found mellodrama of the "mellerest" sort, designed to bring forth much admiration for the hero, great tears of sympathy for the heroine, the bitterest of hatred for the villain and soul-satisfying laughter for ye comedy man.

On Tuesday many more visitors are expected to arrive and will be amply taken care of by the committees of the local merchants and manufacturers. Most of the local concerns have called their salesmen in from the road to help entertain the visitors. The merchants will really get down to business Tuesday, and for that reason no entertainment features have been arranged for the day time.

The entertainment event of Tuesday, however, will be the big smoker and buffet supper at the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

J. W. Vaughan, a leading merchant of Cartersville, president of the Southern States Merchants' association, which was organized in Atlanta last year, will preside at Tuesday night's meeting, and will make an address. Governor John M. Slaton and Mayor James G. Woodward will make speeches of welcome to the visitors. Harvey Jordan will address the meeting on "Rural Credits." Mr. Jordan is a cotton expert and has made a thorough study of the subject of rural credits both in this country and abroad.

Following the speaking will come a smoker and buffet supper, at which there will be eatables, smokables and drinkables enough to continue until its enemies are vanquished.

This meeting will include also an open parliament and general discussion of any topic that any one cares to discuss.

The Tuesday night meeting promises to be one of the big features of the assembly.

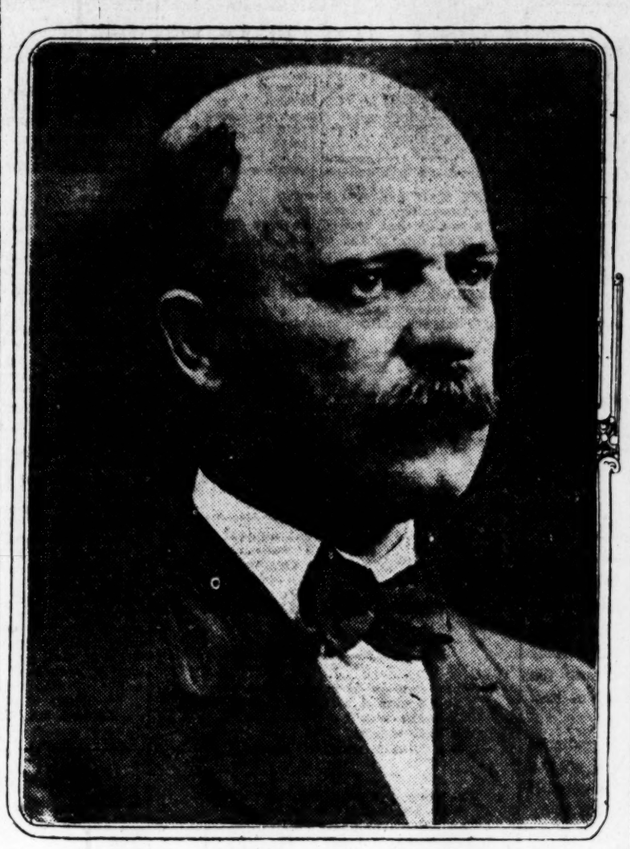

Wednesday night the visitors will be entertained by a great program of "movies" at the Alamo theater, No. 2.

Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, they will be taken upon a tour of the city and tendered a general reception at the Piedmont Driving club.

Among those registered Monday were the following:

J. E. Wolfe, Warwick, Ga.; S. H. Manget, Trenton, S. C.; J. W. Butler, Camilla, Ga.; J. I. Perry, Donaldsonville, Ga.; G. L. Sadler, Grantville, Ga.; T. J. Campbell, Stone Mountain, Ga.; R. I. DR. HARDMAN SPEAKS TO VOTERS OF THOMAS

Thomasville, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Before a fair-sized audience that would probably have been larger but for the inclemency of the weather, Dr. L. G. Hardman spoke at the city hall here tonight in the interest of his candidacy for governor. He was introduced by Dr. T. M. McIntosh, of this city, an old friend and admirer.

Dr. Hardman gave an outline of his platform and the things for which he would stand if elected governor. He said he was greatly encouraged by the reception he had met with on his trip through south Georgia.

Dr. Hardman will receive a good vote in some districts of Thomas county, and his followers claim he has a chance to carry the county.

AT THE THEATERS

Vitagraph Films.

(At the Grand.)

The Grand theater offers this week two films that are happy in their extremes. Both are high-class Vitagraph releases and are all that could be asked in the way of acting and perfect photographic and staging details.

The first of these, "Shadows of the Past," is a gripping story of the world-old and interesting story of the eternal nemesis of the ghosts of dead deeds, culminating, withal, in a happy overcoming of the difficulties that present themselves. Vitagraph claims this to be one of its best releases of the year, and, indeed, there is every reason to believe that this is even so. No film has been seen at the Grand in a long while that appeals to the emotions with such subtlety.

The excitement of this film is pleasantly relieved by the presentation of "Mr. Bingle's Melodrama." Suffice it to say that this is a rip-roaring farce-comedy with a laugh in every scene arising from real humorous situation and not from slap-stick comedy.

Jewell Kelley Company.

(At the Bijou.)

The popularity of book plays is again being demonstrated this week at the Bijou by the Jewell Kelley company, presenting a splendid dramatization of Bertha M. Clay's novel, "Dora Thorne." Last night's crowd was one of the biggest of the season and the capacity of the popular Bijou was tested from pit to dome with standing room at a premium.

The principal role of "Dora Thorne" was portrayed by Miss Rose Morris, a charming little actress who has won many friends of late by the capital manner in which she has presented the leading roles of this company. The part of Ronald Earle was well played by Vernon Wallace. Charles J. Lammers made a good Lord Ronald Earle. Earl Higley extracted much comedy from the part of Arthur J. Jones, the American correspondent, and Misses Douglas and Jackson and Newton Ross, T. C. McDonough and H. W. Miller filled their roles in a most acceptable manner.

The play was well staged and the performance throughout gave general satisfaction. If one may judge from the cordial reception and generous applause of last night a splendid week is in store for the Jewell Kelley company in "Dora Thorne." There will be daily matinees at 2:30 o'clock and night performances at 8:30 o'clock.

BARWICK IS READY FOR A BIG CROWD

Representatives Are in Atlanta Arranging the Details of Excursion on Thursday.

A delegation of Brooks county boosters is in Atlanta, registered at various hotels, making final arrangements in regard to the excursion which leaves Atlanta next Thursday morning, via the A., B. & A. railroad for Barwick, a little town of less than 500 people located in the northern part of Brooks county. The unique feature of the excursion is that the town is arranging to entertain the excursionists in their homes for several days free of charge and give them a rousing good time eating country products and hunting and fishing. All who go will be given a hearty welcome and a real Brooks county greeting.

E. Y. Clarke, chairman of the Brooks county delegation in town, received Monday afternoon the following telegram from Barwick, which shows how well prepared and how much in earnest are the people in Barwick. It is from the president of the Barwick Boosters' club and was as follows:

"E. Y. Clarke, Atlanta, Ga.—Arrangements made for entertainment of five hundred excursionists. Can double that amount if necessary. Big country picnic on Friday, which will be attended by five hundred people. Urge the folks to come and have a big time.

(Signed) "T. M. MASSEY."

E. C. BUCHANAN OFFERS FOR CANDLER'S PLACE

Ernest C. Buchanan, a young attorney, has announced that he will make the race for alderman in the ninth ward to succeed Judge John S. Candler, who retires. Mr. Buchanan's announcement followed closely after a meeting of his friends at which resolutions were adopted urging him to make the race.

For three years Mr. Buchanan was connected with the office of the city comptroller. He held a position of trust and responsibility and was held in esteem and regard by Comptroller Goldsmith and other officials of the city government. He took a course in law and last year he graduated with honors from the Atlanta Law school. Since his graduation he has held several important appointments.

ATLANTA LEAST AFFECTED.

Of all countries in the world, America is least affected by the European conflagration.

Of all cities in America, Atlanta is least affected by this big event that casts a shadow into the farthest corner of civilization.

In the first place, Atlanta is essentially a manufacturing center, ranking according to population as one of the most important in the country.

The products of Atlanta industries are less penalized by the European demoralization than those of any other city in the country.

The great majority of Atlanta's manufactured products are for domestic and not foreign consumption.

This means that whatever complications arise in the way of finance and tying up of European trans-oceanic traffic, Atlanta stands to be least influenced. The problems of trans-shipping and shipping gold do not enter, except negligibly, into our equation.

As for the city's financial standing, it is impregnable.

During the past year, despite the depression that has been world-wide, Atlanta's bank clearings and postal receipts, two infallible barometers, have gone upwards by leaps and bounds.

The bank situation is what counts.

And Atlanta today, from the point of view of strength of national, state and private banks, has never been in a more healthful condition. The banks have plenty of money, and their reserves are safeguarded. Under the Aldrich-Vreeland act, they can amply take care of the legitimate demands of the emergency.

During the impending disaster in Europe this country becomes a factory for the whole world.

Atlanta and Georgia will reap the benefit from the abnormal condition.

Last year, cotton prices were boosted from the simple fact that as a whole the crop was below the demands of consumption.

Georgia had better than an average crop in face of those conditions. The result was general prosperity in this state.

This year, with Europe at war, the conditions practically are duplicated.

As a whole, there is another shortage of the cotton crop.

Georgia has better than an average crop.

Even a world-war cannot choke off the demand of the world, civilized and uncivilized, for the material that is needed in war as in peace.

Now—

It is conceivable that Europe, being tied up by blockades of the usual traffic lines, cannot manufacture these goods.

In that contingency, the burden and the profit fall on this country. Our cotton mills should enter an era of unprecedented prosperity.

Fortunately, the crisis has come long before the movement of the cotton crop has begun.

There is ample time to arrange for the normal and profitable movement of the crop, and the government has shown a disposition to rise intelligently to the occasion. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo had previously announced he would advance plenty of money for the movement of the crops.

With plenty of currency available, and with our domestic channels of transportation undisturbed by war, the price for cotton will stiffen.

Whatever derangements exist in the cotton as well as the stock markets of this country are only temporary.

Europe and the Orient must have the cotton of the south—if not now, then later.

We all know the foundations of prosperity are secure. There is no need for misgiving. The slight fluctuation cotton records now and then will be more than made up once the situation readjusts itself.

The banking situation in America, throughout the south and in Georgia particularly, is sound. In Atlanta it was never better.

All that is necessary is to keep cool.

We are facing the most prosperous season the country and the south ever experienced.

THE UNCERTAINTY ENDED.

Reduced to its last frank analysis, the decision of the interstate commerce commission on the petition of the eastern carriers for a 5 per cent increase in freight rates, means the eastern railroads other than the New Haven are forced into the role of "goats" for the past piracy of that system.

The commission grants the 5 per cent increase from Pittsburg westward to the Mississippi river. It holds out no comfort to but rebukes the lines east of Pittsburg to the Atlantic seaboard.

The commission may be right in this compromise decision. But a uniform decision would have less complicated matters.

The New York Central, the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore and Ohio and other lesser systems, being in the central as well as the eastern divisions, will profit so far as their lines lie in the central division from the increases authorized in that territory. But their eastern lines, as well as other railroads toward the Atlantic seaboard, are to be penalized for the sins of the New Haven.

The commission, evidently, was unwilling to take the risk of making advances anywhere if the New Haven might even theoretically be the beneficiary. That may be a wholesome lesson as against high finance—but it comes high to the other railroads.

For better or worse, the decision is made and uncertainty ended. And the ending of uncertainty will in itself be beneficial.

TROUBLE AHEAD IN EUROPE.

Viewed upon its single merits and conditions, the chaotic condition—not to call it universal war—in Europe threatens to write the darkest pages of modern history.

We have had plenty of so-called "wars" of world-wide proportions.

They will all be dwarfed if the threats of today materialize.

The triple entente is composed of England, France, Russia.

The triple alliance is composed of Germany, Austria, Italy.

These two coalitions were assumed, each to offset the other by their very might and insure the peace of Europe.

That supposition has fallen to the ground.

The triple-headed opponents have fallen to pieces.

Seemingly, Italy, for good and sufficient private reasons, has deserted the triple alliance.

Germany is inclosed, as a nut between the jaws of France and Russia.

If the armies of France and Russia are efficient, and if they can quickly be mobilized—and both factors are in doubt—it seems that Germany is in for serious trouble. That is not to reckon upon Austria's falling upon the flank of Russia, and not to reckon with the forces of Servia and Montenegro, feeble intrinsically but counting, in a contest of these dimensions.

The part England will play is conjectural. She is bound to France and Russia. But her relatively small army is needed by possible emergency uprisings in South Africa and India, and her influence will be chiefly exerted upon the sea.

The whole story is one of "ifs," and conjectures. The destiny of Europe and, in a way, of the world, is on the knees of the gods.

But even as a war lord a king doesn't begin to earn his salary.

Decked with the medals they bestowed upon themselves war-kings cut fine figures as shining marks.

The host of American travelers in Europe are suddenly reminded of the fact that they really ought to see America first.

Huerta left in the nick of time: They might have turned him back on us.

Mexico? Let's see: Used to be somewhere on the front page.

And in the general war news they shouldn't overlook the fact that Uncle Joe Cannon has announced for congress.

The War-Spirits.

To give the wild war-spirits dominion o'er the sod;
To redden all the lilies that send messages to God;
And fields no more are fruitful; the glitter of the guns
Against the breasts of brothers in blood-red battle-suns.

All their peaceful banners
Drooping, or far-furled;
A world that was God's love-dream,
And war in the world.

The battle-tide rolls far and wide; the battle-smoke has made
A mockery of sun and stars: nor prayers, nor tears have stayed
The blast of battle-trumpets; fields echo to the tread
Of legions. Spirits of the strife shall give them blood for bread.

All earth's peaceful banners
In desolation furled,
While to the gates of heaven
Rolls the war-red world.

We are in receipt of this brief communication:

"One o' them city ortomobiles killed my bull, and I don't know what number it was. The number of the bull was branded to him, but that don't do me no good. What I want to know is: Can the state give me the number of the orto? Hit was a red one, with a white man in it and going like hell, so to speak."

The Colonel Remembered.

"Sunday morning as Colonel Starbuck walked forth," says The Belton Herald, "he met a weazened old plodder on the highway who said he was hungry. The colonel has been used to plenty for so long that he had forgotten that anyone could become hungry and at first he turned a deaf ear to his supplicant. But the colonel's mind dwells much in the past and he suddenly remembered a time when he wore a gray uniform, ragged and dirty, and was as hungry as this tramp could ever dare be. Colonel Starbuck comes out strong when conviction strikes him. As a consequence the old tramp got fed to repletion with better food than any crumbs that ever fell from a rich man's table."

Talk About "Music!"

Description of a musical evening at the parson's home, as given by The Alamosa Herald:

"The music was simply grand. They took you with them down the line of the white ivory keys, then rushed you back again, turned you around, and you stood awed as they touched the black keys and music came forth. Truly these two young men can well adhere to the proverb that 'music hath charms to soothe the savage breast.'"

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS TO GEORGIA PRODUCERS

Editor Constitution: Great wars and rumors of wars always affect trade. So closely bound together are the nations of earth, through economic laws, that the suffering of one involves the others. The call to arms is a call away from the fields and factories. There is a large non-productive, dependent class artifically created. Food products naturally become scarce. Those nations at peace are called upon to supply the granaries of the world. The cost of living increases both at home and abroad. Witness the slump in the cotton market due to the impending crisis in Europe and the rise in wheat for the same reason. Wherein does it concern the southern farmer? The answer is apparent. The prices for cotton are likely to be lower this fall owing to the necessary reduction in exports. Cotton is king in the south. There will be a return to normal conditions. Two suggestions are offered as being timely, especially since the harvest season has begun in some sections:

First. Farmers, hold your cotton as far as it is possible for you to do so. Watch the progress of events. You will have to be a cosmopolitan, in that your chief staple enters the markets of the world. Peace brings blessings to you. A European war affects your profits.

Second. Do not be too hasty in selling food products. You can afford to lay in store for future needs. Watch the cattle. Give heed to the hogs. Conserve your wheat, rice, potato, corn and other food crops. It would be far better to have these food products in abundance and for sale than to depend upon cotton. Study the markets. Again, let us all give thanks for peace and prosperity within our borders and may the day be hastened when men shall beat their swords into plowshares and arbitration shall be the universal method for the settlement of all disputes.

A Study of State Taxation.

Editor Constitution. How any serious and honest man who undertsands the tax equalization bill which went into effect this year can object to its purpose and general operation is more than I am able to understand.

The stand taken for this law by the governor and those members of the legislature which supported it should be appreciated by all intelligent and honest citizens.

And yet, needed as this law was and helpful as it will prove, every student of taxation knows that the equalization law should be considered as only a beginning toward a proper system of state finance. It it sometimes said that our present laws would be entirely satisfactory if only they could be properly administered and all property, visible and invisible, made to appear on the tax books at full value. This, however, is far from being the case as the recent discussion, both in and out of the legislature, of the taxation of notes and mortgages with its consequent trouble and triple taxation, has brought out. The better our present laws are administered the more glaring will appear their imperfections.

I believe that it would greatly help to the attainment of a better system of state finance if the next legislature at its first session would appoint a commission to study the subject of taxation and report to the legislature. The report of the commission might have little immediate effect, but it would stimulate interest and help to educate the public in this difficult and important subject. The principles of finance are too abstruse to be taken up directly by the general assembly and given adequate consideration in its debates. The appointment of such tax commissions has been quite usual throughout the states of the union whenever need was felt of improvement in the laws. EDGAR H. JOHNSON.

Makes Others Get Busy.

(From The Tifton Gazette.)

In the drug stores, the depots, the barber shops, on the street corners, and wherever knots of men congregate, there is much loud talking and emphatic gesticulating. "Little Joe" is out for the senate. Strange to say, nearly all the talk and gestures are from the Smith men; Joe Brown has no shadow of a chance, and they are using up a great deal of wind and energy, especially considering the weather. It only shows how the little, quiet man can make others get busy.

A Good Slogan.

The slogan, "Send Slaton to the Senate," sounds splendid some.

EDMONDSON CHALLENGES THOMAS TO DEBATE ON BROWN-SMITH

Hon. Grover Edmondson, representative from Brooks county, has challenged Judge W. E. Thomas, of Valdosta, to a joint debate before the people of Coffee county. Mr. Edmondson last night sent Judge Thomas the following telegram:

"In view of the fact that you have changed your political alignment between the divisions of thought represented by Hon. Joseph M. Brown and Hon. Hoke Smith, and in view of the fact that you conveniently made this change when you knew it was too late for you to have opposition for judge, and in view of the further fact that you are quietly canvassing your circuit and saying things about Governor Brown, whom you formerly ardently supported, I respectfully challenge you to meet me in joint debate before the people of Coffee county, at Douglas, Ga., on Saturday, August 8, and defend your present attitude. Please wire answer.

"GROVER EDMONDSON."

MANY VISITORS ARE CALLING AT JOE BROWN HEADQUARTERS

The following statement was given out Monday from Brown headquarters:

"The week started with an unusual rush of visitors, amongst whom were many people from the country counties. Our mail was very heavy, and we have simply been too busy to get up the usual statement, in order to acquaint our friends throughout the state with the progress of Governor Brown's campaign.

"We are very much encouraged, not only by the enthusiasm of our friends who called at headquarters, but by the positive assurances that come to us through a truly extraordinary mail.

"We would like for The Constitution to say that we appreciate the many calls that we receive from generous friends in the country counties, all of whom say that Governor Brown's support is still loyal and that he is making distinct gains in hitherto Smith strongholds."

JUDGE NAT E. HARRIS TO SPEAK AT FORSYTH THEATER AUGUST 12

On August 12 Judge Nat E. Harris will address the voters of Atlanta and Fulton county in behalf of his candidacy for governor. Announcement of the speech is made from the offices of the Fulton County Harris club, 1611 Candler building. Judge Harris will speak that evening from the stage of the Forsyth theater.

Other speeches in the wards and districts of the county are being scheduled by the club. On Thursday night at 8 o'clock in Chastain's hall, corner Hemphill avenue and West Tenth street, R. A. Broyles, Eb T. Williams and Judge J. K. Hines will speak.

"From now till the 19th of August our organization will work with increasing vigor to give Judge Harris in Fulton one of the biggest majorities in the state," said Mr. Massengale yesterday afternoon. "We have promised our friends in every ward and district to come among them with effective speakers. Plans for this program are being perfected now by the executive committee," said St. Elmo Massengale.

Judge Harris is speaking at several points in south Georgia this week. Thursday morning he will address his fellow veterans of the confederacy at the big reunion in McDonough.

Announcement was made Monday by St. Elmo Massengale, chairman of the Fulton County Harris club, of the executive committee, that Ivan E. Allen will be secretary of the committee.

The following have been selected and have accepted their appointment for active work as members of the committee:

R. A. Broyles, E. E. Pomeroy, Harold Hirsch, Dr. K. G. Matheson, John W. Moore, G. Arthur Howell, Ivan E. Allen, W. T. Winn, E. L. Adams, Virlyn B. Moore, Henry S. Johnson, Carlos Mason, J. H. Ewing, T. F. Goodwyn, A. R. Colcord, J. G. Hardy, A. J. West, Donald Bain, J. H. Andrews, W. P. Walthall, J. B. McCrary, H. D. Shackleford, J. T. Wikle, J. R. Holliday, J. Wayne Moore, B. F. Burdette, P. H. Norcross, James T. White, B. F. Markert, Eb T. Williams, C. H. Strong, J. L. Anderson, Judge J. K. Hines, J. H. Welsh, Robert Gregg, Aldine Chambers, James E. Warren, Owens Johnson, Demps Perkerson, E. F. Childress, C. D. Knight, J. P. Davenport, Alvin Richards, Marcellus M. Anderson, Wade P. Harding, L. W. Robert, Jr., W. V. Snyder, Hardy O. Teat, William Van Houten and George M. Kohn.

"The wide diversity of views on other political matters that this executive committee represents is typical of the support Judge Harris is receiving in this county," said Mr. Massengale. "He is winning the favor of all schools, regardless of factional lines."

SOLICITOR GENERAL HUGH DORSEY WILL MAKE SEVERAL ADDRESSES

Solicitor General Hugh Dorsey will make a number of speeches this week for "Joe" Brown. His dates follow:

Tuesday, August 4, Carrollton; Wednesday, August 5, Lawrenceville; Thursday, August 6, Griffin; Saturday, August 8, Bainbridge; Monday, August 10, Albany; Wednesday, August 12, Tennille; Saturday, August 15, Cartersville, and Monday August 17, Marietta.

HOTTER AND HOTTER GROW CHARGES IN ROME CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP RACE

Rome, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The most heated political campaign of recent years is the three-cornered race for judge of the Rome judicial circuit. The candidates are Judge Moses Wright, the incumbent; his nephew, Wesley Shropshire, of Summerville, who was formerly Governor Terrell's executive secretary, and Judge W. M. Henry, of Rome, who was for twelve years on the bench. The Wright family, which has heretofore presented a united front in north Georgia politics, is split into opposing factions by this race and ill feeling has been engendered which will possibly last for a number of years.

Charges and counter charges have been flying thick and fast between the adherents of Moses Wright and Wesley Shropshire, and both the mails and public prints have been pressed into service for the campaign as well as speeches on the stump. The opponents of Judge Wright assert that he was a party to a deliberate attempt to wreck the Rome State Mutual Life Insurance company, now in the hands of a receiver, when he disqualified in the cases involving the company, and Judge A. W. Fite, of Cartersville, took jurisdiction. On the other hand, Judge Wright's supporters assert that the fight against him is engendered by the efforts of disgruntled attorneys who are engry because they cannot control his judicial actions.

Another feature that enters into the race is Judge Wright's handling of the Lyerly bank robbery cases. Frank Matthews and Mark McNew were convicted and sentenced to ten years each for the robbery of the Lyerly bank last January, in which $4,000 in cash was taken. The sentences were suspended during an appeal to the higher courts. Upon Judge Wright's order Matthews, who suffered from tuberculosis, was not confined in the Chattooga county jail, but was kept in a tent under guard in the woods. Matthews died a few weeks ago at the improvised hospital where he was kept. Opponents of Judge Wright have circulated campaign stories in Chattooga county to the effect that Matthews did not die, but was allowed to escape and go to his home in Texas. These are samples of the violent campaign that is being waged on both sides.

NAT HARRIS CLUB IS FORMED BY VOTERS OF TROUP COUNTY

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Recently the friends of Judge Nat E. Harris began a club in LaGrange and in less than an hour had acquired a list of 125 names.

The names of the members of the Nat E. Harris club, with an assurance of the vote of Troup county, have been forwarded to his headquarters in Atlanta.

75 COUNTRY WEEKLIES FOR US, SAYS HARDMAN HEADQUARTERS

Despite the fact that newspapers of the state, particularly the country press, are taking sides in the political campaigns less this year than in many former years, it was stated at the headquarters of Dr. L. G. Hardman, candidate for governor, on Monday that his campaign now has the support of about seventy-five country weeklies.

Dr. Hardman's support is steadily growing in south Georgia, his managers say. They have received notification that Dr. J. R. Statham, of Americus, has just organized a club of more than a hundred members for Dr. Hardman in Americus.

JUDGE LONGLEY WITHDRAWS FROM RACE FOR SENATE IN TROUP

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—Judge F. M. Longley has announced his withdrawal from the race for state senator from Troup county, leaving Colonel E. T. Moon without opposition for the place. Judge Longley states that his action is influenced partially by considerations of his health and partially by a consideration as to his having stated his intention at one time not to make the race.

Judge Longley had already announced his intention to make the race for president of the senate if sent to that body by his fellow citizens.

JUDGE LUTHER M. CUNNINGHAM WITHDRAWS FROM RACE IN HART

Hartwell, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The legislative fight in Hart county was somewhat simplified by the withdrawal of Judge Luther M. Cunningham, the first to announce. One of his reasons for leaving the field was that he thought no one wanted the place when he announced. Three remain in the running, D. C. Alford and J. B. Morris, of Hartwell, and Seaborn Winn, of near Bowman.

Hon. "Bill" Morris, known by thousands of Georgians, arrived in Hartwell Sunday to be the guest for several weeks of his old legislative companion, Hon. Julian B. McCurry. Senator Morris was accompanied by Mrs. Morris.

SEVEN CANDIDATES FOR HOUSE AND THREE FOR SENATE IN COBB

Marietta, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Conditions in Cobb county local politics were considerably mixed up Saturday by the entrance at the very last hour of two additional candidates, for the legislature, John D. Perkerson, of Austell, announcing for the senate and Colonel Fred Morris, of Marietta, announcing for the house.

This makes three candidates for the senate from the thirty-fifth district, viz.: E. P. Dobbs, business man, Marietta; Colonel Charles H. Griffin, lawyer, Marietta, and Mr. Perkerson, farmer, Austell. It also makes seven candidates who would serve their people in the house, Joe Abbott, Acworth; H. B. Moss and John T. Dorsey, Marietta, lawyers; Dr. William Kemp and D. A. Summerour, Marietta, the latter a farmer, and B. N. Stanley, Kennesaw farmer; also Colonel Fred Morris, of Marietta, a lawyer.

It is freely predicted that there will be an old-time line-up and that the old factional enthusiasm will bob serenely up again.

SMITH AND FELDER SUPPORTERS ORGANIZE CLUBS IN CLARKE COUNTY

Athens, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The friends of Senator Hoke Smith, some sixty or seventy in number, gathered at the offices of E. K. Lumpkin yesterday evening and set down their names as members of the Hoke Smith Club of Clarke county, with Harry Hull secretary. Officers will be chosen and an active canvass of the county will be made for Mr. Smith.

A Felder club has also been formed in Athens to work for the former attorney general of the state in his race for the short term in the senate. This is the sixth political club organized here. Colonel Howell C. Erwin, chairman of the county democratic executive committee, has been chosen president and Alderman Vincent Mathews secretary of the organization. Colonel Felder will probably be invited to speak here at an early date.

COWAN SPEAKS IN LAGRANGE TODAY IN ADVOCACY OF JOSEPH M. BROWN

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Hon. S. J. Cowan, of Swainsboro, will speak at the courthouse here on Tuesday, August 4, in the interest of the senatorial candidacy of Hon. Joseph M. Brown.

The senatorial candidates who have spoken in LaGrange are Hon. Thomas S. Felder, Hon. T. W. Hardwick, Hon. Rufe Hutchens. Colonel Nat E. Harris, so far, has been the only gubernatorial candidate to speak here.

SLATON CONTINUES TO GAIN; REPORTS ARE ALL GRATIFYING

That Governor Slaton is continuing to make gains in his race for the senate seems to be the concensus of opinion now not only of those who are receiving the correspondence from all parts of the state at Slaton headquarters, but also of the men in the street in Atlanta.

While two weeks ago it was not unusual to find men who, although declared supporters of the governor, expressed some doubt as to his success, today it seems to be the sentiment of all Slaton men that he will be a winner. Most of them are of the opinion that he will have a clear majority over all competitors and that a convention deadlock will be avoided. The following extracts from some letters received yesterday shows how the governor's friends in other counties feel about the race:

M. T. Fielder, Box Spring: "No doubt now that Chattahoochee county is safe for Slaton."

B. H. Edmondson, hardware merchant, Summerville: "In my judgment John M. Slaton will carry Chattooga county."

Fred L. White, Buckhead: "Have been through the greater part of Greene and Morgan counties. Sentiment seems decidedly in Slaton's favor."

C. R. Sanders, merchant, Bluffton: "I feel Slaton will get a nice majority here."

S. M. Wellborn, Columbus: "I think the Felder men are beginning to 'stand from under.' Will have a big meeting here Tuesday night."

G. W. Johnson, Abbeville: "Mr. Slaton will carry Wilcox county by a good safe majority."

W. T. Crawford, banker, Cairo: "I believe Slaton can safely put Grady in his column. Thus far I have encountered very little serious opposition."

C. M. Thompson, Statesboro: "There have been some straw ballots taken here and in none of them did Mr. Slaton fail to lead overwhelmingly. He will carry this (Bulloch) county by a handsome majority. I think the same condition exists in Jenkins, Screven, Emanuel, Tatnall, Toombs, Montgomery and Laurens."

A. H. Irvine, Austell: "Slaton will get at least two-thirds of the votes in this district."

O. D. Cannon, Lavonia: "I think everything very favorable to Slaton in Franklin county."

G. W. Brandon, St. Marys: "Slaton has nothing to fear in Camden county. Will receive 75 per cent of the votes cast."

W. W. Finley, Hazlehurst: "Am sure Slaton will carry this (Jeff Davis) county, with Felder second. Rest not in it."

R. G. Coursey, Tifton: "I believe Governor Slaton will get a majority over all opponents in this (Tift) county."

BROWN ATTACKS RECORD OF SMITH

Failure to Institute Port Rates Which He Had Promised the People Is Again Commented on. Position Regarding Pensions.

In his last card, Hon. Joseph M. Brown attacks Senator Smith's record while governor and since he has been in the United States senate. His card follows:

To the People of Georgia:

Senator Hoke Smith has announced no platform of principles upon which he is asking your votes, but we are told that he is running on his "record!" Therefore, let us examine further into that record. Of course, in summing up his record, we must consider that part of it before, as well as that part of it after he went into the senate.

First, I will refer to that which was the central idea of his campaign for governor in 1905-6 and of his administration which followed. He threw the state into hysterics by his demand for "port rates" and his denunciation of "exhorbitant freight rates." He promised the people in general that they should have "port rates" and a reduction of four million dollars in freight rates and he promised the farmers in particular that they should have a reduction of five hundred thousand dollars in rates on cotton if they would elect him governor. They believed him capable and sincere and elected him.

He doubled the force and expenses of the railroad commission, and for about four and a half years of the past seven the parties he appointed or favored have been in the majority on that commission. Yet they have taken not one step toward installing "port rates" or making a reduction of four million dollars in the general freight rates or five hundred thousand dollars in the cotton rates.

But the additions he made to the railroad commission law were acclaimed by his admirers as constituting "a masterpiece of constructive statesmanship." Two of the sections of this wonderful display of "constructive statesmanship" read as follows:

"The railroad commission is authorized to require all common carriers and other public service companies under their supervision to establish and maintain such public service and facilities as may be reasonable and just—and which the public convenience demands.

"It (the railroad commission) shall have power and authority to order and compel the operation of sufficient and proper passenger service when in its judgment inefficient or insufficient service is being rendered the public or any community."

Operations Ceased.

The state remembers that in the spring of 1909 about two hundred engineers and firemen of the Georgia railroad made certain demands of the management and, being refused, struck. For about two weeks the operation of the road ceased.

More than five hundred thousand people living in the counties reached or traversed by that road were deprived of the power of shipping their cotton and other freight, and of traveling, unless they were rich enough to furnish their own vehicles or hire others. Factories on the line were shut down for want of coal, etc., and the wages of the operatives stopped.

And another feature. There were upwards of eleven hundred stockholders of that road, of whom more than four hundred were women. Their property was damaged by these two hundred striking train men.

Did Governor Hoke Smith prod his appointees on the railroad commission to their duty to the public under the much vaunted law he had helped to make?

Again, Governor Hoke Smith was sworn to execute the constitution of the state. The constitution says: "Protection to person and property is the paramount duty of government and shall be impartial and complete." Did Governor Hoke Smith protect those four hundred women and seven hundred men in the right to an income on their property which was being damaged by these two hundred trainmen? The people of Georgia can answer these questions.

Again, in October, 1912, about two hundred and fifty other trainmen on the Georgia railroad struck, and for twelve days the public was damaged and the state's laws and her great seal were brought into contempt.

Once more the initial duty of restoring the operation of this public utility was on the railroad commission which again had a majority indorsed by Governor Hoke Smith. I awaited its action.

Well, after the labor federation, under its union label, ordered the strike the people at several of the local stations telegraphed to the chairman of the commission, urging that board to protect them by enforcing the operation of the trains. The message of the mayor of Sparta read as follows:

"Our people hope something can be done by you immediately. Force Georgia railroad to give up freight service, so that cotton can be moved, otherwise great loss will follow. Business conditions warrant our asking you to give this matter vigorous attention."

The chairman who, under Governor Hoke Smith's supervision, had drawn the law prescribing the powers and duties of the railroad commission, answered, on October 2:

"After a conference with Judge Hines which has just closed, and a somewhat careful examination into the law, our tentative opinion that we were without jurisdiction and power in the matter has been strengthened and confirmed.

Had No Power.

"The commission has no power or authority under the law of its creation to investigate or inquire as to the cause of the strike or render any judgment or opinion thereon and therefore, I regret that we have been unable to see how we can at this time be instrumental in a resumption of service."

And so, Uncle Reuben, Hon. Hoke Smith promised that if you would elect him governor he would reduce your cotton rates as much as $500,000 and the general freight rates as much as $4,000,000. He did not make the slightest attempt to do either.

He made a law which he boasted would insure for you better service than you had ever had. Yet, there have been two suspensions of public service on one railroad which have held up your shipments of cotton, etc., and when his law is invoked to protect you from loss, you are told by the chairman, who helped him to draw the law, that it is "no good"—practically a confession that Governor Hoke Smith either did not know how to draw a law which would protect you, or that he did not care whether you were protected or suffered.

"The railroad commission is authorized to require" and "it shall have power and authority to order and compel, etc." What did Governor Hoke Smith mean by those words?

And this was the boasted climax of Governor Hoke Smith's "constructive statesmanship?"

Coming now to Senator Hoke Smith's record in the senate, he undoubtedly has an established, though partly unpublished record there which has ostracised the southern half of Georgia.

For district attorney of the United States court he stood in the way of anyone desired by Senator Bacon. Since Senator West succeeded the lamented Bacon, he has presented the names of at least half dozen good and prominent lawyers and none of them can run the gauntlet and be appointed and confirmed.

It is openly charged and generally believed that Senator Smith wants Mr. Robert Berner, of Forsyth, Ga., appointed to this position. The fact that nobody south of Macon is acceptable is certainly a strong indication that the general belief above indicated is true. At any rate Senator Hoke Smith has practically taken the stand that there is no lawyer in south Georgia who is capable of filling the position of district attorney of the United States circuit court.

I venture the prediction that this will prove the costliest politics Senator Hoke Smith has practiced since he entered the senate.

Record in Senate.

Now let me recur to one part of Senator Hoke Smith's published record in the senate. I quote from the "authorized version" which Senator Hoke Smith is running in the weekly papers of the state, viz.:

"The senator made a fight on the special pension bills, and on the Sherwood pension bill which would have increased the amount paid for pensions by $75,000,000 a year. The house had passed that bill, many democrats, among them Speaker Champ Clark, voting for it. The senate refused to pass the Sherwood bill, but it passed the McCumber bill, adding about $25,000,000 a year to pensions. Senator Smith had part in preventing the passage of the Sherwood bill which meant a $75,000,000 raid on the treasury, thus helping to save the country $50,000,000 annually. He also voted against the $25,000,000 increase."

Summing up the above, Senator Smith was one of the probably fifty or seventy-five senators who refused to vote to add $75,000,000 to the pension rolls, and he was unable to prevent the addition of $25,000,000 to those rolls. That is a record which he thinks worthy of bragging about.

I will not interfere with his bragging about his part in this achievement, but I am going to call attention to his failure in this matter to at least attempt to secure justice to the worthiest men of his state, and, in fact, of the entire south. I refer to the surviving ex-confederate soldiers, and, I will add, to the widows of many who are now dead.

The time has undoubtedly come in which the better thought of the United States will look with favor upon the proposition to grant to the survivors of the confederate armies the same pensions per man as are paid to the survivors of the union armies.

For more than forty years, ex-confederate soldiers have been admitted as members of congress, have served as members of the president's cabinet, ministers plenipotentiary, etc., to foreign governments, and have filled high positions of trust in all departments of the United States government. One of them is now chief justice of the United States supreme court, the most august court of justice in the world. Where then is there any argument against paying pensions to them?

Again, within the past forty years or more the southern people have been taxed to pay their portion of at least four billions of dollars which the survivors of the union armies have received in pensions. The state of Georgia within that period has no doubt paid more than fifty million dollars of that colossal sum.

As to Confederate Pensions.

Therefore, as many of the officers of the confederate armies, like those of the union armies, have for many years been paid thousands of dollars per man per annum from the treasury of the United States, why should not the private soldiers of those armies be paid pensions, just as pensions are paid to the survivors of the union armies? Many of these beloved heroes of the southland are now in need of the necessaries of life, and, if paid the pensions in question, they could live in comfort, especially if the state of Georgia continued, as she should, the stipend she now provides for them. And if the general government should pay these pensions, which would go mainly to the private soldiers, it would remove the practical establishment by a round-about way of an aristocracy of beneficiaries.

Why do our senators and representatives in congress fear to vote to pension the ex-confederate soldiers? I doubt not that many northern democrats, and, in fact, a number of republicans would recognize the justice of the measure and join in voting pensions to our heroes; for it would be recognized that such a vote would do more to cement the bond of brotherhood between the people of the two sections than would a million speeches.

It is to be regretted that Senator Hoke Smith was so engrossed in securing postmasterships and other United States appointments in the cities and villages in Georgia for his partisans, and in keeping negroes in office in Washington, etc., and in helping to deny an increase in pensions for ex-union soldiers, who are already amply provided for, that it did not occur to him to demand that pensions be paid to our southern ex-soldiers who so sorely need them. No doubt $25,000,000 would provide for all the ex-confederate soldiers. Why did he not make at least an attempt to substitute ex-confederate for ex-union soldiers provided for in the McCumber bill?

If elected to the senate I pledge myself to make all proper endeavors to secure for the ex-confederate soldiers the same pensions per man as are paid to the ex-union soldiers, this to apply alike to widows of confederate soldiers. Let us end the policy of keeping only the sentiment in the south and the money in the north. Yea, of draining money out of the south to expend it in the north.

SENATE AGAIN DEBATES MILITARY LEGISLATION

Adjourns for the Second Time Without Acting on Quartermaster General Bill.

For the second time the senate adjourned Monday during the discussion of the bill abolishing the office of quartermaster general of the state and the resolution of Senator Perry referring the matter to the governor. It seems that the senators feel some delicacy in voting on a matter which has resolved itself into a controversy between Adjutant General Nash and Quartermaster Obear.

After the passage of numerous local house bills the military legislation was taken up for discussion at 12:25 o'clock. Upon motion the previous question was ordered at 12:40 o'clock. Senator Perry argued during this fifteen minutes for his resolution and an attempt was being made to extend this senator's time when Senator Sweat's motion to adjourn was carried by a vote of 22 to 8.

A motion calling upon the senate to meet at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning was lost after a short debate by the calling of the ayes and nays.

A resolution was introduced by Senator Sweat providing that the railroad commission of Georgia shall investigate and ascertain upon what terms the state can ecquire an extension of the Western and Atlantic railroad to Jacksonville, Fla. This railroad would constitute a continuous grand trunk line from Chattanooga to Atlanta, and thence to Fort Valley and on to the port of St. Marys via Waycross, and from said port of St. Marys to the city of Jacksonville.

Killed in Auto Smash.

Baltimore, August 3.—Mrs. Carolyn O'Keefe, of Norfolk, Va., was instantly killed and her husband was badly hurt when their automobile turned turtle near here today. The O'Keefe automobile was one of four occupied by prominent Norfolk people who had made up a party at Baltimore to tour to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

THREATENING WEATHER FOR GATE CITY TODAY

The weather report for Atlanta today follows:

"Cloudy more or less threatening weather is indicated for Atlanta on Tuesday. Conditions are favorable for light showers, with southeasterly winds. The temperature will be moderate, hardly exceeding 85 degrees, during the day, but the air will be very moist and murky."

CHARGES HER HUSBAND WITH CRUEL TREATMENT

Saying her husband beat her, Mrs Margaret Copeland Burney filed suit for divorce and alimony in Fulton superior court, Monday morning, through her attorney, William M. Smith.

In the petition for divorce the wife alleges that she and her husband, Robert N. Burney, were married November, 1913, and that since that date she had been beaten, shot at, bound and gagged and left lying on a bed for two days. She believed that she had just grounds for being granted a divorce.

WAR---PEACE

"If you had known, even you, at least in this your day, the things which belong unto your peace!"

Luke xix: 42

Your day has come.

Opportunity is yours.

Christ is here.

MAKE PEACE WITH GOD.

If you had known, if you had kept at one with Him, how different would your life have been!

Your sin—the pain which has come therefrom to you and yours—if you had known, if you had foreseen, you would have refrained, and these would never have been. But now, lift up your head! Christ, offering the forgiveness of God, has come again.

WITH YOU, YOUR FATHER PLEADS, "MY SON, GIVE ME YOUR HEART."

Ages ago Christ wept over Jerusalem. He knew her children even as He knows you. He saw the city's ruin inevitable because of them. Behold—her leading citizens plotting to kill the Son of Man—her rich oppressing the poor—the temple there, the house of prayer, made a lair of thieves—strife and sin rife in her midst—there could be but one end, ruin.

And so He cried,

"If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! But now they are hid from thine eyes.

"For the day shall come unto thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass the around, and keep thee in on every side.

"And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee—"

Jerusalem was destroyed in fifty years.

Look about you today. Be not blind. Miss not the day of your opportunity.

FIGHT WITH—NOT AGAINST GOD.

Men today are spending millions, aye even billions in Europe to kill one another because of sin. Each man struck down means suffering, agony to five other persons, chiefly women and children. CAN YOU IMAGINE JESUS AT ONE END OF A RIFLE AND A DEAD MAN SLAIN BY HIM AT THE OTHER?

God bring peace abroad!

But, man, look about you here at home. President Wilson has saved us from the shame and sorrow of bloody war with Mexico. And today, it is believed, he has succeeded in averting the horror of a strike upon the railroads in the West. But the war against wrong has only begun.

A bullet in Europe may deprive the wife and children of some soldier of support by killing him. But our government statistics show that the majority of our laborers, live men working in time of peace, receive insufficient wages to support in decent life their wives and children.

IN GEORGIA, LITTLE CHILDREN ARE FORCED TO WORK, TO SLAVE THE HOURS AWAY WHEN THEY SHOULD BE AT SCHOOL AND PLAY—THIS BECAUSE OF OUR SIN. WHAT CAN BE THE END OF THEIR STUNTED LIVES? WHAT WILL BE THE FATE OF A STATE WHICH CONTINUES TO SACRIFICE HER BABIES TO THE GREED OF MEN?

THE "SHEPPARD BILL," now pending in the Senate, gives to our children a measure of the protection that other States and civilized countries have long ago provided.

And in the discussion of these great problems disputes will arise: Machinery to insure peace is desperately needed. Only one end can come of continual industrial fighting, ruin to both State and country.

THE "OLIVE SUBSTITUTE," PROVIDING THIS MACHINERY, WILL EVENTUALLY PUT AN END TO THE STRIKE AND LOCK-OUT IN GEORGIA.

Help write these measures into the laws of our State!

WAR AGAINST WRONG.

Even now, as you read these words, pray God to send peace into your heart and peace into the world!

Hear Him stilling the tempest with His call, "Peace, be still."

Hear Him the night of His betrayal saying, "My peace, I give unto you."

He spoke those words for you. But that peace can only abide where there is war with Him against sin.

May it abide with you!

Christ has come. Hear you Him.

Mrs. Gaines Entertains.

Mrs. W. M. Gaines entertained informally at luncheon Saturday at her home on Drewry street in compliment to Mrs. G. N. Howson, of Princeton, Ind. Cut flowers were used as decorations, and the table had pink rosebuds for its centerpiece. Covers were laid for eight.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Earline Gaines.

Mrs. Howson wore a becoming gown of light blue crepe de chine with lace bodice.

Mrs. Gaines wore light tan silk trimmed in blue.

Miss Gaines wore green taffeta and lace.

Those present were Mesdames F. C. Thayer, J. R. Thornton, G. L. Howell, Roy Jones, Raymond Thompson, W. H. Hudson, G. N. Howson, W. M. Gaines and Miss Gaines.

Granberry-Roberts.

Mrs. Lottie Eugenia Granberry announces the marriage of her daughter, Eugenia, to Mr. George W. Roberts, of Nelson, Ga., the wedding having taken place Saturday, August 1, at St. John's Episcopal church, College Park, Ga.

Wood-Smith.

Mrs. F. F. Judkins, of Birmingham, Ala., announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Irene Judkins Wood, to Mr. J. W. Smith, on Saturday evening, August 1, at 8:30 p. m. The ceremony was performed by Dr. DuBose at the First Methodist Episcopal church, and was witnessed by a small party of relatives and friends, including Mr. Smith's father, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Nashville, Tenn., for which city they left immediately after the ceremony.

Eleven Babies Helped.

During the past week eleven babies in Atlanta have been helped through the efforts of the fifth district work of the Georgia branch of the National Congress of Mothers.

Money has been contributed for the purchase of milk, this done through Mrs. John W. Rowlett, president, while others have ordered milk sent by their dairyman, to homes designated as those where needy sick babies are.

Rooks-McDonald.

Miss Mae Rooks and Mr. Ben McDonald were happily married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holbrooks, Main street, East Point, Friday night, in the presence of a large gathering of friends.

The ceremony was performed by Judge R. F. Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will make their home in East Point.

To Visitors.

Miss Mary Bird, of Lawrenceville, and Miss Kathleen Holder, of Jefferson, are visiting the Misses Perdue. The Misses Perdue entertain for their guests at cards Saturday afternoon. Mrs. John A. Boykin entertains at dinner for them Tuesday night.

Mrs. Slaton Entertains.

Mrs. John Marshall Slaton was the honor guest at the reception given in Gainesville, Ga., Thursday afternoon by Mrs. John Woodfin Barnhill, who entertained the William Candler chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, recently organized by Mrs. W. S. Foster. Mrs. Barnhill, who is the granddaughter of Colonel Sidney Reid, of Eatonton, Ga., is closely related to Mrs. Slaton. The keynote of simplicity and quiet elegance was given in every detail, the color motif being given in the national colors of the Daughters of the American Revolution in decorations and ices. The punch table, screened off in a booth of red, white and blue, was presided over by Misses Mildred Mealor, Lillian George and Mrs. Barnhill's little daughter, Virgil O. Hardon.

The guests were presented United States flags at the door by Master Matthew Talbot Barnhill. A delightful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. William Owens, of Atlanta. A charming reading was given by Mrs. Slaton.

The out-of-town guests motoring over for the occasion were Mrs. W. S. Foster, ex-regent D. A. R.'s in Georgia; Mrs. Rosa Reid, who is past mistress of the general assembly; Mrs. Samuel Garlington, Augusta, and Mrs. Millis and Mrs. McNeel, of Marietta.

Birthday Party.

A congenial party of friends motored out Sunday afternon to "Hawthorne," the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Williams, to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Williams, Mr. Joseph Raine, Jr., and Mr. Sanford Rust, which happens to be on the same day, as well as the same year, making them all exactly the same age.

A birthday cake, lighted with pink tapers and embossed with pink roses, ornamented the center table, and each guest presented the three popular gentlemen with birthday gifts.

Supper was served on the lawn at small tables daintily flower-trimmed.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raine, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. John Summerville, Mr. and Mrs. Keats Speed, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Miss Nan DuBignon, Miss Emily Lowndes, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. King, Mr. James H. Nunnally, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Blalock and Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Andrews.

Lawn Party.

Miss Anne Patterson will entertain at a lawn party tomorrow evening at her home on West Peachtree street in honor of her guest, Miss Jane Young, of Lexington, Ky.

Club Entertainments.

There will be the usual dance on the roof garden, Capital City club, tonight. The tea dance at the Piedmont Driving club will be largely attended Wednesday afternoon. The members of the general assembly of Georgia will be entertained at the Druid Hills club Wednesday night and there will be no dinner dance that night. The regular dinner dance at the Capital City Country club takes place Thursday evening. There will be dancing on the roof of the Capital City club Friday night. There will be a tea dance at the Druid Hills club Saturday afternoon and a dinner dance at the Piedmont Driving club Saturday night.

Jordan-Gordon.

The marriage of Miss Willie Florence Jordan and Mr. McAllister Gordon took place, Monday, August 3, Rev. T. P. Cleveland officiating. After a visit abroad Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will return to Atlanta to make it their home.

JACKSON-PIERCE.

Rochelle, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Friends of Mr. Lonnie E. Pierce and Miss Etta Jackson were surprised today upon advice from Savannah that they were married there Thursday night. Mr. Pierce is a member of the City Drug company here, while Miss Jackson is a sister of Mrs. W. B. Owens and one of the most popular young ladies of Rochelle. After a few days stay at Tybee, they will be at home in Rochelle.

JACOBSON-BACKER.

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jacobson, of LaGrange, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennie, to Mr. Herman Backer, of New York, the date of the wedding to be announced later. No cards.

STATE TO PROFIT BY NEW MEAT LAW

Councilman McCord Believes Price of Meat in Atlanta Will Be Lowered by His Ordinance.

The embargo on farm-raised meat, a restriction which is estimated to have cost Georgia farmers more than $300,000 a year by forcing them to find a market outside of Atlanta, was lifted yesterday when Atlanta's general council passed the McCord "meat law" and took final action regarding its enforcement.

The ordinance is regarded as the most effective measure to combat the present high price of meat adopted in years. Members of the Retail Grocers and Grocers' association, and others who recommended the ordinance, look to it to economize food by offering the farmer a market to compete with the big packers of the west.

For Georgia Farmers.

"The law was not only introduced in the interest of the consumer in Atlanta," Councilman McCord, author of the measure, says, "but for the Georgia farmer as well. The law should act as an incentive to the small farmer to give more attention to animal husbandry, produce better stock and slaughter his stock for competition in Atlanta against the packers. Opening a market here for the farmer will also have the effect of keeping down the price of meat, and the consumer will be benefited."

Because of the operation of a law in Atlanta which prohibited the farmer from shipping his meat into Atlanta, grocers and butchers have been dependent entirely on the packers for their food products. The McCord law effectively lifts the embargo, and at the same time it safeguards the public against the shipment of unfit or unwholesome meat into the city.

Under the McCord law, the farmer can slaughter beef, sheep, hogs or other stock on his farm, and the only requirements he is subjected to is an inspection by an official in the city, town or county in which the meat is slaughtered. A certificate of inspection is required to accompany the shipment into Atlanta, and where the railroad makes the inspection a certificate is required to show that at the time the meat was offered for shipment it was in sound and wholesome condition. The McCord law requires that the railroad certificate be sent immediately. Upon arrival of the consignment in Atlanta, inspectors of the board of health make another examination. Thus, the meat is subjected to a double inspection.

Haden Protested.

Recently, President Haden, of the Georgia chamber, protested on behalf of the Georgia farmer, against the strict provisions of the ordinance which is now in effect. This ordinance was framed by the health board with a view of preventing unscrupulous farmers from shipping diseased or unfit meat into the city, but at the same time the restrictions were so great that it was impossible for the honest farmer to get a market in Atlanta. As a consequence, farmers were discouraged in their stock enterprise, and the big packers who were able to maintain a state, city and government inspector, gained a monopoly and fixed the price for which the butchers and grocers paid for meat.

Councilman McCord's law was subjected to rigid investigation by council committees before it was adopted. The city health board considered the measure at great length, and adopted it unanimously on the indorsement of Dr. J. P. Kennedy, city physician. Other council commitees threshed out the law, and in its present shape it is said to be legally perfect.

ATLANTA POLICE ASKED TO FIND $50,000 HEIR

A missing heir to $50,000 is being sought in Atlanta. The last heard of Milton Bentley by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bauman, of Baltimore, Md., who died June 29, leaving an estate of $50,000, was a post card postmarked "Atlanta" and dated about two years ago.

Attorney George W. Cameron, of Baltimore, is earnestly seeking Bentley, and Chief of Police Beavers has been requested to aid in the hunt for the missing heir.

Bentley was seized by the "wanderlust" and he left home. Shortly after this, his mother received a post card from him in Atlanta. He has not been heard from since.

Sometimes the young man assumes the name of Milton Brown.

SMALL CROWD HEARS HARDWICK AT ROME

Rome, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Thomas W. Hardwick, candidate for the senate, addressed a small audience of Floyd county voters at the courthouse tonight. He was introduced by Hon. F. W. Copeland, and was given a good reception by his supporters, though it is claimed that the fight in Floyd is between Slaton and Hutchens.

Hardwick's address was along the usual lines. His principal fire was directed at Governor Slaton, whose record he discussed at length. He brought forth no new arguments in his speech.

STAND ON PARCEL POST EXPLAINED BY HARDWICK

Will Ask Slaton to Debate With Him in Atlanta August 10.

Congressman T. W. Hardwick, candidate for the United States senate, has written the following card in reply to a statement given out by Governor Slaton several days ago:

Mr. Slaton's last card is too weak to merit any extended reply from me, as I have already shown, his so-called facts are either misrepresentations or distortions of fact. I have already answered him explicitly and accurately about each and every one of these matters, and he certainly adds nothing to the strength of his contentions by simply restating them. Such a method of disputation is hardly up to the standard that might be expected of a would-be senator. It rather reminds one of the childish performance of saying and repeating "it is" on the one side, and "it is not" on the other, on the idea that repetition will take the place of proof.

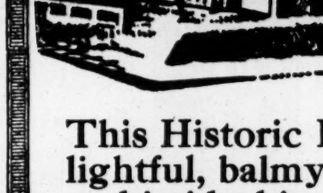

The only real issue of any consequence that Mr. Slaton ever sought to raise with me was on the parcel post. I have made my position on that matter perfectly plain, though men and newspapers who know better continue to misrepresent it. I will stand for the present parcel post system, just as it stands today, but I am unalterably opposed to any change from the present system of fixing the postage on a parcel according to the distance it travels, or to increase the present weight limit on parcels.

Where does Mr. Slaton stand on these matters? Does he favor zone system of charging postage according to distance or the flat rate? Does he favor an increase in the weight limit? If so, to what point? Let him, for once in his life, even if it does break the record of a life-time, quit dodging and sidestepping, backing and balking and answer explicitly and fully the seven plain questions I asked him in my card of July 19, 1914. If I cannot force him to do this in a newspaper debate, and it does seem impossible, I will undertake to do it on the night of August 10 when I expect to speak in Atlanta and to invite him to divide time with me here, in his own home.

THOS. W. HARDWICK.

DEATH OF COL. JONES CLOSES CITY COURT

Greenville, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) The death of Colonel J. A. Jones last week caused an adjournment of the city court of Greenville. Colonel Jones was interested in most of the cases on the docket and Judge Revill ordered an adjournment for the term. Colonel Jones is a brother of Judge W. R. Jones, of this city, and one of the most prominent lawyers in this section of the state. He was sick only one day and his death was a great shock to the county. He was held in high esteem in Meriwether and his death is the occasion of a great loss to this county.

PERRY SAYS WAR WILL NOT HURT EXPOSITION

W. W. O'Hara, commissioner for the south to the Panama-Pacific exposition, is in receipt of a telegram from Director in Chief George H. Perry, of the exploitation department of the exposition, answering the question which is being asked by many, "What effect will the European war have on the exposition?"

Mr. Perry declares that only three nations out of the thirty-seven that have started building operations on the exposition grounds are even remotely affected by the war, so far as the exposition is concerned, and that two of these countries, France and Italy, have already indicated that war will not change their plans.

"The only effect the war will have on the exposition," says Mr. Perry, "will be some loss in attendance from Europe, which never was a factor of much importance. There may, however, be advantageous effects from the standpoint of higher price for the crops and an increased attendance from North and South America."

POLICEMAN THOMPSON MAY RETIRE ON PENSION

Council yesterday acted favorably on the report of the pension committee authorizing the retirement of D. J. Thompson, a member of the police department, on an allowance of $45 a month—half the salary he is now receiving.

Mr. Thompson is one of the oldest officers in the police department. He is detailed at city hall where he is fondly known among the scores of city officials as "Daddy" Thompson. He has been on duty at the hall for a number of years, and is held in the highest esteem and respect. Recently, he was taken ill and was forced to relinquish his post. However, he quickly recovered, and has been on duty every day.

The resolution authorizing the pension will go before the aldermanic board for final action.

Campbell Court Convenes.

Fairburn, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Campbell superior court convened in regular session at 9 o'clock this morning, C. S. Reid, judge of the Stone Mountain circuit, presiding. An unusually large crowd is in attendance.

J. C. Watkins, of Palmetto, was elected foreman of the grand jury.

In his able and eloquent charge to the grand jury, Judge Reid congratulated the county on being free from serious crime.

Swift & Company's sales of Fresh Beef in Atlanta for the week ending Saturday, August 1, averaged 11.06 cents per pound.—(adv.)

HAD PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS

All Over Face. Burnt and Stung So Impossible to Get Any Rest. Ashamed to Go in Public. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

327 Dabney Ave., Vicksburg, Miss. — "About four years ago pimples and blackheads came all over my face, which worried me. First they were very red, then they would come to a head and after they were opened they burnt and stung so badly it was impossible to get any rest. At night it was almost useless to go to bed for I couldn't get much sleep and could not keep my hands off my face. I was ashamed to go in public for almost everyone had some remark to make of the way my face looked.

"I took some patent medicine but that did no good. I also had a treatment which did no good. I kept on worrying with them, then I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used them and they did so much good I decided I would give them a fair trial. So I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and I was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. E. D. Richards, Jan. 1, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail

Children prefer Cuticura Soap because of its soothing emollient properties in all cases of irritation of the skin and scalp, especially when assisted by light touches of Cuticura Ointment. A single set is often sufficient when all else fails. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, a sample of each with 32-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address: "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

NEW CEMETERY OFFER REFUSED

Council Turns Down Proposition to Buy Ninety Acres on McDonough Road.

The scheme to sell the city a tract of 90 acres of land on McDonough road for a white cemetery on a basis which would eventually put the purchase price above $150,000, was defeated in council yesterday afternoon.

Not a single protest was heard when Alderman James R. Nutting, bitterest opponent of the scheme, urged the adoption of the adverse report of the finance committee, which was directly responsible for the defeat of the project. When it became apparent to the promoters that the measure would be beaten an effort was made to have the proposition which had been acted on by the committee withdrawn, but by reason of the fact that it required unanimous consent of the general council, the effort proved futile.

Despite the fact that the owner of the property, C. G. Hannah, who is a member of the city park board, and C. P. Goree, his attorney, appeared before the finance committee while the June budget was being made up and declared that they held an option, which was about to expire, the property still remains in his possession. The tract is located near a tract which the city owns and the argument was made that if the city acquired the Hannah property it would be in a position to open an approach to its own property and establish a magnificent municipal cemetery.

The proposal made to the city through Attorneys Goree and Aldine Chambers was that the city purchase the property for a cemetery, divide it up into lots at $12.50 each and divide the purchase price of each lot with the owners. Subsequently another proposal was made substantially that Hannah and his associates be given back every fifth lot sold by the city. It was agreed in the proposal that the property be used as a white cemetery only and that no more negroes be allowed burial space on the property.

MORTGAGE TAX UPHELD BY BIBB ARBITRATORS

Equalizers Expect County Returns to Show Gain of Over $5,000,000.

Macon, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The board of arbitrators, named to determine whether or not the mortgages on city and county property should be taxed, late today decided not to relieve the mortgages of the tax.

Several hours were given to argument by the money lenders and borrowers who argued that it meant double taxation. The arbitrators held that mortgages have value and should therefore be taxed, as provided by law.

The arbitrators were John R. L. Smith, representing the county commissioners; Bruce C. Jones, representing the citizens' committee, and Howard D. Cutter, who was named by the two arbitrators as the third member of the board.

Taxing of mortgages began this year at the instance of the board of equalizers composed of O. H. Cabiness, John Bailey and Walter Hollingsworth.

By taxing the mortgages and considering the general growth of the county, they expect Bibb county to show an increase of more than five million dollars in assessed valuation over last year.

MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR HER OWN FUNERAL

Miss Julia B. Hampton, well known school teacher, died Monday morning in Chautauqua, N. Y., following an operation. She was related to Sidney Lanier, the poet, and had other prominent connections.

Miss Hampton was a teacher in the LaGrange high school, at LaGrange, Ga., and attended the chautauqua in New York every summer. She resided in Atlanta with Colonel and Mrs. Jesse E. Mercer, 841 West Peachtree street. She wrote from Chautauqua several days ago stating that she was not hopeful concerning the results of the operation, and in directing the disposition of her body, asked that she be buried beside her mother in Culloden, Ga.

The body will arrive in Atlanta tonight and be carried to Culloden Wednesday.

WADSWORTH TO MANAGE BIG FLORIDA FAIR

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) H. H. Wadsworth, who so successfully managed the Troup county fair last year, has accepted the position of manager of the twenty-five-thousand-dollar fair of Elacua county, Florida, to be held at Gainesville, the county seat.

Mr. Wadsworth is one of LaGrange's most highly esteemed citizens. He has had wide experience in fair work, having been engaged in that line of work in Ohio for a number of years before coming to LaGrange.

This position was offered to Mr. Wadsworth at the suggestion of Secretary Edward Young Clarke, of the Brooks County Industrial club, to whom the offer was previously made.

GRAND JURY PROBING CRIMES IN COLUMBUS

Columbus, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) With Judge W. E. Thomas, of Valdosta, presiding for Judge Gilbert, the midsummer term of Muscogee superior court convened today. Judge Thomas's charge to the grand jury was an exceptionaly able one.

The grand jury organized by electing W. C. Woodall foreman, and began an investigation of the recent series of crimes in the suburbs of Columbus. One true bill charging murder has already been returned in connection with this investigation.

ERNEST FOSTER WANTS TO LOCATE RELATIVES

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Do you know Ernest Foster, a bright young fellow, 11 years old with brown eyes and red hair, weight 68 pounds? Master Foster states that his father is Mr. Guy Foster, of Mobile, Ala., and lives at 654 Delaware street.

Charlie Young, of LaGrange, on his return trip from a visit to the west boarded a train at Montgomery, Ala., and shared the seat of this bright little fellow. Ernest stated that he was also bound for LaGrange, where he was to be met by Loon Smith, his uncle, of Frolona, Ga.

When the train reached LaGrange Mr. Smith was not at the depot and did not arrive after a lapse of three hours, so Mr. Young brought Master Foster to the home of his sister, Miss Anna Young, where he will await the coming of some of his relatives. As yet attempts to locate his father and uncle have been all in vain.

BUT LITTLE DEMAND IN MONEY MARKET

Time Money Demand Below Normal--Brokers Paying Indebtedness Instead of Renewing as Usual.

New York, August 3.—The money market of New York was quiet today. Owing to the suspension of the stock exchange, there was no market for call loans. The demand for time money was below normal. Although this was due in part to the closing of the stock market, the slackness of demand was regarded as a reassuring indication.

Commercial paper was quoted at 6 per cent for all dates. Transactions were light.

Brokers who had loans maturing today paid off their indebtedness instead of arranging for renewals, as is customarily the case when business is proceeding normally in the street.

The suggestion that arbitrary rates of exchange be fixed from day to day was put into effect informally and resulted in a sharp drop in quotations. Several houses quoted a rate of $5 for demand sterling. Last week quotations of $6 and over were made. Only a nominal amount of business was done, however.

REGENSTEIN WILL FILED MONDAY WITH ORDINARY

The will of the late Julius Regenstein was filed Monday in the office of the ordinary. No appraisment of the estate is made, but it is known that the instrument disposes of a large estate.

In the first clause of the will it is directed that all debts outstanding at death be immediately paid.

It bequeaths to the widow, Mrs. Matilda Regenstein, all the testator's real estate, including three houses on South Forsyth street, Nos. 215, 217 and 219, and three houses on Castleberry street, Nos. 16, 18 and 20.

'Eighty-seven shares of the valuable stock of the J. Regenstein company, on Whitehall street, are bequeathed to the widow, and the same to each of the following children: Seligman, Louis, Meyer and Joe Regenstein, Mrs. Belle Wolf and Mrs. Essie Cerf. To Mrs. Bertha Shack, another daughter, forty shares of the stock is bequeathed, advances having been made to her during the testator's lifetime.

Several smaller requests were made to his grandchilren and friends.

The testator expressed a desire that no litigation over his estate be brought by any of his heirs, providing that the child commencing any litigation shall by that act forfeit to his brothers and sisters his share in the estate.

The widow and the two eldest sons, Seligman and Louis, were named as executrix and executors of the large estate.

PROVISIONS DROP; EXPORT STOPPAGE CAUSED DECLINE

Pork Closed $1.75 Off; Lard, 85 to $1.12 1-2; Ribs, 57 1-2 to 62 1-2—September Corn Also Lost Heavily—Decline in Wheat and Oats Light.

Chicago, August 3.—War developments today jolted provision prices down. Losses at the end of trading ran from 57½ to $1.75 as compared with Saturday night. Stoppage of lard exports to Europe was immediately responsible, coupled with the tightening of finances.

Corn fell with provisions, the September delivery closing 3⅛c down. Other options of corn dropped only ¼ to ⅝c.

Wheat declined ¼c to 1¼c net and oats ⅝ to 1⅜c.

Although first transactions were not particularly noticeable, the lard market soon gave evidence of unusual pressure, and in a short while was down nearly a dollar a tierce. Meanwhile, pork and ribs also began to collapse, and before the end of the day the pork market was even more demoralized than lard. Pork and ribs closed at the bottom prices reached. Most of the selling of provisions was confined to a few large holders and was of a stop loss character. Net declines were: Pork, $1.75; lard, 85c to $1.12½, and ribs, 57½c to 62½c.

The wheat trade was much contracted in volume and price changes were no more than if war was not going on at all. Stop-less selling on orders, which came into automatic operation, had a good deal to do with the irregular decline in corn.

The close sympathy between the provision market and prices of corn tended to deprive the cereal of support.

Oats gave way with corn.

HE BLOCKED PASSAGE OF TRADE BOARD BILL

Washington, August 3.—An attempt of democratic leaders to pass the trade commission bill in the senate tonight was blocked by Senator Lippitt, of Rhode Island, who said he wanted to speak on the measure. Senator Newlands, in charge of the bill, announced a night session would be held tomorrow night with a view of putt'ng the measure through.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

A sale of big business interests in Atlanta became known on Monday.

The Southern Amusement company, of which S. A. Lynch, of Asheville, is president, owners of big moving picture interests in Atlanta, Jacksonville and other cities, has bought the controlling interest in the Southern Feature Film company, with offices in Atlanta, New Orleans and Dallas. The consideration given is not known. The Southern Feature Film company is a $250,000 corporation, and releases some of the largest moving picture features such as the Famous Players, Jesse L. Lasky and Bosworth's Features.

The seller of the Southern Feature Film company stock was Neils Esperson, of Houston, Texas, a large rice planter and oil well owner.

Montgomery Business Sold.

Mr. Esperson in turn has bought for a consideration of $75,000 the business of the Montgomery theater and the Montgomery billiard hall, located on Peachtree street. The former was bought from the Southern Amusement company. The latter was bought from the Georgia Amusement company.

Mr. Lynch is president of both organizations, and is also president of the Carolina Amusement company, which operates picture theaters in North Carolina.

Mr. Esperson took charge of the Montgomery on Monday.

Sale in Eastman Park.

F. C. Eastman, Jr., owner of Eastman park, has sold to C. E. Ritch, a six-room bungalow, on lot 19, in block 1, on Elbridge drive, for $2,800. This is the third bungalow that has recently been sold in Eastman park, and Mr. Eastman has announced plans to build three more at once.

Winecoff Hotel Improvement.

Work was begun Monday on the Winecoff hotel's new $8,000 rathskeller, which is to be finished by September 1. The rathskeller will seat 200 people and will be, it is said, the largest in the city. One of its features will be a rose garden. A specialty to be served in the new dining room will be "possum and taters."

EXCHANGES STILL SHUT FOR INDEFINITE TIME

Liverpool, August 3.—The directors of the Liverpool Cotton association, at a meeting this morning, resolved to close the cotton exchange indefinitely. A resolution also was passed declaring that until further notice all trading in futures and all tenders and settlements for futures contracts be suspended and that until arrangements to safeguard the interests of all concerned can be made no trading in spot cotton shall be allowed.

The New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges remained closed Monday. The cotton seed oil and coffee markets were also closed. The Chicago board of trade was open. The stock exchanges have closed indefinitely.

Medicine in Foods.

(Elizabeth Gregg in August Nautilus.)

The garden is a great medicine chest. Be your own doctor and look to your own slight ailments.

If you are wakeful eat lettuce. For affections of the skin and for yellow skin eat onions. Onions are also good for colds, coughs, scrofula.

For a torpid liver eat freely of asparagus.

If the bowels are diseased try blackberries.

For malaria and general breakdown eat cranberries.

If nervous and irritable eat plenty of celery.

For constipation eat fruits, ripe and healthy fruits. Fresh fruits are good; so are figs and dates. Raisins are beneficial.

When the body is in good condition keep it in good condition by denying the appetite what has once injured the body. One can do everything for himself by eating the right thing and not too much of it, and by leaving alone the wrong thing and all of it. He can do more than doctors can do for him when he is flat on his back in bed.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY to buy fine 7-room house, with every modern improvement, furnace heat, corner lot, beautiful location and surroundings, high-class neighborhood, big, shaded tract, 10-minute car service; owner is going to South America and will sell at a very low price and easy terms. Inquire on premises, 82 West End avenue, corner Ashby.

SOUTH SIDE.

ATTENTION, RENTER!

WHY pay $30 a month rent when I will sell you a beautiful bungalow, stone porch, beam ceilings, furnace heated, at $25 per month? This place will rent for not less than $32 per month. About the first payment—if you have it, all right. What more will take care of that also. What more could you ask? The above statement sounds unreasonable, but at least warrants investigation. Call at 918 Healey building, or phone Ivy 7362. W. L. McNevin.

NELMS CONFERENCE TO BE HELD TODAY

Government Agents and Representatives of Mother of Missing Girls Will Discuss Disappearance.

Due to the illness of Postoffice Inspector Barry and L. J. Baley, special agent of the department of justice, being out of the city on other duties, the conference set for Monday morning between these two government representatives and the lawyers and special investigators of Mrs. J. W. Nelms, employed in the nation-wide hunt for her missing daughters, Miss Beatrice Nelms and Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis, was postponed until this morning at 10 o'clock.

It is hoped by Attorney Reuben R. Arnold and James A. Watson, Jr., counsel for Mrs. Nelms, that the Dennis-Innes telegrams, furnished by the Western Union Telegraph company a few days ago, will furnish sufficient grounds for the government to hold Victor E. Innes, the Portland, Ore., attorney, and man of mystery in the disappearance of the sisters.

The Portland police have reported to local investigators that Innes has disappeared from that city and cannot be located.

Mrs. Nelms and her attorneys declared that the telegrams are sufficient grounds for detention of the Portland attorney.

German Reservists Are Unable to Get Home for the War

While Germans and Austrians in America are rallying patriotically to their country's cause in the present critical situation in Europe and are willing and anxious to return home and fight, they are unable to get transportation, according to the statement of German Consul Eric Von Zoepffel-Quellenstein.

The consul stated that he has received advices from New York that all transportation facilities Europeward are indefinitely suspended and at present there is no prospect of their being reopened.

Hundreds of Atlantans are deeply interested in every line of news from abroad about the war by reason of the fact that they have many friends and relatives in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thrower, with their two children, who went abroad some two months ago, returned to Atlanta Monday. They did not hear of the war situation until they were in midocean on their return on the liner Pennsylvania.

Charles H. Black on Monday received a cablegram that his brother, Will Black, of New York, and his mother are safe in Paris. The message contained no intimation as to their expectation of getting back to America soon. Miss Evelyn Orme, of Atlanta, is with them.

A cablegram has been received that Mrs. A. W. Calhoun and Miss Harriet Calhoun will sail August 8 on the New Amsterdam.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Florence R. Ormond and her daughter, Mrs. James Campbell, who are living in Paris, are anxiously awaiting word from them.

Kimball Proves too Small For Crowd at Slaton Rally; Meeting Is Held at Forsyth

When a conference of the friends of Governor John M. Slaton was called to meet in the dining room of the Kimball house last night, even the most enthusiastic of his supporters had no notion of the crowd that would turn out.

What it would have been had it been advertised it would be difficult to estimate.

When the hour of 8 o'clock arrived, the dining room of the Kimball was filled to overflowing. Every seat in the room was taken and hundreds were standing. The doorway was conjested and scores were clamoring for admission.

Finally, seeing that it would be utterly out of the question to hold a meeting in the dining room, Alfred C. Newell, chairman of the Slaton campaign committee, asked that the crowd adjourn to the Forsyth theater. All who had come to the Kimball house joined in the procession, and fully 1,500 persons filled the lower floor of the theater, many standing in the aisles.

It was one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in Fulton county. If there were ever any doubt as to how the people of Georgia—for the gathering mentioned were from all over the state—feel about the candidacy of "Jack" Slaton, that doubt was quickly dispelled.

The very mention of his name was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause. The tributes paid him were genuine and spontaneous. When he himself briefly addressed the audience the applause was thunderous.

During the progress of the meeting and before Governor Slaton spoke, loud calls for him came from all parts of the audience.

Resolutions pledging the support of Fulton county were adopted by a rising vote and great applause.

Did Not Expect Mass Meeting.

When the crowd had assembled at the Forsyth Mr. Newell called the meeting to order. He prefaced his remarks by saying that he did not expect a mass meeting, but such the "conference" had proved to be. He said:

"We are approaching the consummation of a victorious campaign. This conference is called for the purpose of getting together the friends of Mr. Slaton in Fulton county. We are headed for an overwhelming victory on the 19th of this month. Within the last week we have heard from every county in the state of Georgia. I want to be conservative, and I do not think it is overstating it when I tell you that we will have a landslide.

"We have organized a campaign committee of 15,000 men. We are in touch with 15,000 more. Such an organization was never before formed in Georgia. We want an organization in Fulton county. We want to go to the polls organized. We are going to send Slaton to the senate with an unparalleled vote from old Fulton."

On motion Mell R. Wilkinson, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, was elected chairman of the meeting, and Earl E. Griggs, secretary.

Mr. Wilkinson prefaced his remarks by saying that the meeting was to be a perfectly informal one. He stated that he had known Governor Slaton for many years and he knew that he would fill the high position of United States senator to the satisfaction of every person in the state of Georgia.

Former State Senator Ed Griffith was the first speaker. He delivered a heart-to-heart talk to the audience and was on friendly and intimate terms with them before he had spoken a score of words. He said he was the happiest man in the state of Georgia for he felt sure of the overwhelming victory of Governor Slaton. He then told why he was for Slaton for senator. He stated that he had served with him in the house when Mr. Slaton was chairman of the judiciary committee and never once did he notice an act which did not stamp him as a man of upright character and integrity. Later he had served with him in the senate when Mr. Slaton was president of that body.

"Governor Slaton is capable of representing Georgia with credit anywhere he may be sent. In him you will have a man in the senate who represents all of the state as nearly as any man who has ever served in that body," said the speaker.

As an illustration of Governor Slaton's fidelity to duty, Mr. Griffith told of seeing him one morning at the executive office after he had spent a sleepless night studying over the McNaughton case. The governor had not once closed his eyes in sleep.

Mr. Griffith then told why he was not for Hardwick or Felder. He said that Mr. Hardwick in approving of the action of his home county of Washington in disobeying the tax equalization law proved the type of man he was.

"If that's the sort of spirit he's got there is no telling what laws he would seek to set aside. Let us not elect a man who teaches his people to disobey the law," said Mr. Griffith.

Commenting on Mr. Felder, he charged him with deserting the state when the state needed him in the Ducktown Copper company litigation. He also spoke of the inequalities of the convict law of which Mr. Felder boasted the fatherhood.

He predicted a landslide for Slaton and said every county in the state was for him except about two, and one of these was Washington.

Tax Equalization Law.

Representative A. B. Green, of Houston county, next spoke. Mr. Green told of Governor Slaton's ringing message advocating the passage of the tax equalization law and of the impression this message made on him at the time.

"I was convinced that the man who wrote that message was a patriot and an upright man," said Mr. Green. He then told of just what the law stood for.

"Those who are opposed to the tax equalization law are either ignorant of its provisions or want to dodge paying taxes," said Mr. Green. He stated that he would not support Governor Slaton if he were not a married man or if he were opposed to the parcel post. He said Slaton had the stamina and the stuff in him which should be sent to the capital city of the nation.

Always Rose to Top.

John A. Hynds made an eloquent speech which was frequently applauded. He predicted that the scramble to get on the Slaton band wagon was going to be the maddest kind of a rush. And then he asked if there was any real senatorial timber in the race except Slaton. Mr. Slaton's political career had been called an accident, he said. But it was not. He had risen to the top in the high school, at college, at the bar, in the house, in the senate and had made the best governor Georgia had had in forty years. There was something more than accident in such a career, he said. He would rise to the top in the senate, just as he has always done.

"I know of but one man in Fulton county who is opposing him, and he is as lonely as Robinson Crusoe before he found his man Friday.

"Let us look at the other candidates for a moment. Two of them are tottling their own skillets and trying to start a fire with wet sticks; a third is pleading his poverty as a reason for being sent to the senate, while the fourth is waving his tin sword and yelling that he will repeal the constitution of the United States if they will only send him to the senate.

"This is no time for self-seeking politicians. Georgia needs no special privileges, but she does demand fair play. We do demand a currency law that will mean a dollar as much at home in Georgia as in Wall street. In this crisis we need strong men to represent us in the halls of congress, and such a man is John Marshall Slaton," concluded the speaker.

Cries for Slaton.

After repeated calls for Slaton, the governor spoke briefly.

"I see before me tonight old school mates—men I knew and loved in college; men who served with me in the house, and I say to you, one and all, that I would rather have your support than the victory with your vote against me.

"For seventeen years the people of Fulton county have elected me to office. Twice I was elected speaker and later I was elected president of the senate. Fulton county is a county where all the people of Georgia can feel at home, where all the people find relatives and friends. Fulton county is ever ready to aid you and extend you a hearty welcome.

"The senator should not come from Fulton county, but the entire state."

Governor Slaton said that he had made no political speeches; that in the very nature of things he could not, as his first duty was to perform the duties of the executive office. The only times he had left this office was when he had spoken on educational matters, such as the tax equalization act, on which the people of the state desired information.

Governor Slaton concluded his speech with a splendid tribute to his native state.

Mr. Wilkinson concluded the meeting by saying he felt quite sure that when Governor Slaton had served twelve years in the senate he would not be dismissed by the presiding officer with the words:

"Shoo fly, don't bother me!"

Resolutions Adopted.

The following resolutions introduced by Paul Wesley were adopted:

Whereas, we, the voters of Fulton county here assembled, believe the candidacy of the Hon. John M. Slaton represents the best interests of the state of Georgia.

Resolved—First, that we hereby pledge our loyal and consistent support.

Second—That from this time to the day of the primary, August 19, we shall put forth our utmost endeavors to secure for him a tremendous majority.

Third—That the chairman of this meeting shall be authorized to appoint representatives in the various wards of this city, who shall act as ward committees and who shall have charge of the interest of the governor in their respective voting precincts.

H. Y. M'CORD REPLIES TO BROWN'S LAST CARD

Takes Issue With Him Regarding Senator Hoke Smith's Record.

H. Y. McCord, chairman of Senator Hoke Smith's Fulton county organization, has written the following in reply to Mr. Brown's last card:

"Inasmuch as Senator Smith is in Washington attending to his official duties, I think it advisable to answer some of the assertions made by ex-Governor Brown in his last card. As long as ex-Governor Brown indulged in mere general platitudes, as he has heretofore, I did not think it necessary to answer them. Most that he has said heretofore about himself, his record and his opposition to organized labor was manifestly so weak and unjust that no answer was necessary.

"There are just three things in Governor Brown's card that I think merit an answer.

"First, he attacks Senator Smith on his record as to the Burnett immigration bill, stating that Senator Smith's record is 'a sort of negative record' on this question. The Burnett immigration bill is one designed to restrict undesirable foreign immigration, and, among other things, it prescribes an educational qualification for immigrants as a condition of admission to this country.

"In reply, I need only quote the record to show how badly mistaken ex-Governor Brown is. The Congressional Record, on page 3397, shows Senator Smith's attitude toward this bill. He voted for the Burnett immigration bill when it was up in April, 1912, and when President Taft vetoed the bill because of the educational qualification. Senator Smith worked, spoke and voted for the passage of the bill over Taft's veto, and the senate did pass the bill over the president's veto on February 18, 1913, by a vote of three to one. The bill, however, failed to receive the necessary two-thirds majority in the house of representatives to pass it over the president's veto. It is still pending and Senator Smith is working industriously for its passage. The purpose of the bill is to raise the standard of immigrants to this country, so that instead of the ignorant and criminal classes which have heretofore been admitted, we will receive a class who will constitute good citizens and not be a burden on the state.

Quotes Brown's Record.

"Next, ex-Governor Brown complains that under the currency law recently enacted the farmers cannot borrow money on their farm lands. Again I have but to quote the record on ex-Governor Brown. Section 24 of the currency law reads as follows:

"'Any national banking association not situated in a central reserve city may make loans secured by improved and unencumbered farm lands, situated within its federal reserve district, but no such loans shall be made for a period longer than five years and for an amount exceeding fifty per cent of the actual value of the property offered as security.'

"Before the enactment of this law no national bank could loan any money on farm lands. This law removes the restrictions and any national bank in the United States, except those in reserve cities, can lend money on farm lands for a period of five years.

"This quotation from the law itself disposes of ex-Governor Brown's misrepresentation of the currency law. It is a matter of congressional history that Senator Smith, who was a member, of the senate finance committee, was one of the powerful influences that secured the insertion of this provision in the law.

"The last statement ex-Governor Brown makes to which I will reply is that when the negro, Bob Terrell, was nominated as municipal judge in Washington Senator Smith simply voted 'no' against his confirmation, and that no fight was made on this confiramtion.

Not in Keeping With Record.

"This, like other matters stated by ex-Governor Brown, is not in keeping with the record. I have again only to quote the record to show that ex-Governor Brown is mistaken. Senator Smith not only voted against the confirmation of this negro, but repeatedly spoke against his confirmation, and the confirmation of the negro was actually held up under Senator Smith's leadership for nearly three months The Congressional Record for July 13, 1914, contains the following, which shows conclusively Senator Smith's strong fight against the confirmation of this negro:

Remarks of Hon. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, in the senate of the United States, July 13, 1914.

"Mr. Smith, of Georgia—Mr. President, I ask the attention of the senate to a matter of somewhat personal nature. I received this morning a letter from a friend containing the following statement:

"'This is to advise you that a number of your opponents in south Georgia are trying to arouse prejudice against you in rural districts and among the voters by repeating to them a great story about your having voted to keep a negro in office over a white man, having reference to a negro judge in Washington.

"'I know you had reason, and a reasonable one, for casting your ballot that way, and I wish, if you can, you would furnish me with the proper statement to offset this tale.'

"As Robert H. Terrell is the only negro who has been confirmed by the senate, this story must refer to him. I ask leave to bring together in one place what The Congressional Record shows with reference to the nomination and confirmation of Robert H. Terrell.

"'The Congressional Record of February 18, 1914, shows:

"'Executive nomination received by the senate:

"'Robert H. Terrell, of Washington, D. C., to be judge of the municipal court of the District of Columbia. (A reappointment, his term having expired.)

"'On April 24, 1914, the record shows:

"'Executive nominations confirmed by the senate.

"'Judge of the municipal court.

"'Robert H. Terrell to be the judge of the municipal court of the District of Columbia.

"'On May 2, 1914, page 8,260 of The Congressional Record, appears the following:

"'Confirmation of Robert H. Terrell.

"'Mr. Smith, of Georgia: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that my vote on the confirmation of Robert H. Terrell as judge of the municipal court of the District of Columbia be made public. I desire it to be known that my vote was cast against his confirmation.

"'On June 18, 1914, the record shows that unanimous consent was given to publish the vote of all the senators with reference to the confirmation of Robert H. Terrell.'

The vote was as follows:

Nays—24. Bankhead, Bryan, Fletcher, Gore, James, Lea, Tennessee; Lee, Maryland; Newlands, Overman, Owen, Pittman, Randell, Reed, Robinson, Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith, Arizona; Smith, Georgia; Smith, South Carolina; Thornton, Vardaman, West, Williams.

"I have now, Mr. President, put together everything that the record shows with reference to the nomination and confirmation of Robert H. Terrell.

"Of course we understand that all nominations are considered in secret executive sessions, that no record is made of the speeches of senators in secret executive sessions, and that even the votes of senators are not made public and do not appear in the record, except by unanimous consent.

"I feel, however, that I am justified, in view of the unanimous consent given at my request that my action with reference to Robert H. Terrell be made public, to add that all senators who were present are aware of the fact that during the two and one-half months the nomination of Terrell was held up in the senate I on every opportunity, protested against his confirmation and spoke frequently at length against his confirmation. I, of course, voted against his confirmation."

Doctor Speaks Out

to Coffee Drinkers

The Boston Advertiser of June 15, 1914, quotes Dr. D. H. Kress, of Chicago, in an address as saying that tea, coffee and cocoa cause more deaths than alcohol.

"These table beverages are sapping the life of our nation. They are making us a race of weak-kidneyed, weak-livered beings, unable to reproduce ourselves. The kidneys and liver do not perform their proper functions, and the waste matter left in the system tends to bring on arteriosclerosis.

"Statistics show conclusively that as the consumption of coffee, tea and cocoa have increased, the number of nervous diseases and insanity have increased proportionately."

This strong statement from a medical authority, cannot be lightly disregarded.

It is easy to prove in one's own case whether coffee is the cause of frequent "spells" or nervousness, indigestion, biliousness, liver complaint, headache, heart disturbance and other ills.

Quit coffee 10 days, and in its place use

POSTUM

—then note the difference.

Made from prime wheat and a bit of molasses, Postum is a pure food-drink, entirely free from the pernicious drugs in tea and coffee, or any other harmful substance.

In thousands of homes Postum supplies a table beverage, pleasant to the taste, and to be used freely as a rebuilder, where coffee and tea tear down.

Postum comes in two forms:

Regular Postum, must be boiled, 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum, a soluble form, made in the cup instantly, 30c and 50c tins.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds and the cost per cup is about the same.

1. How soon after birth should a baby be bathed?

Immediately after birth the baby's body should be rubbed thoroughly with olive oil or vaseline. Then he is wrapped in a soft piece of wool, old blanket or shawl while the nurse attends the mother. After the latter is made comfortable, the nurse makes a warm suds of pure castile or white soap, and washes off the oil with clean old linen or gauze. Then, using a fresh piece of cloth, she rinses off the suds with clear warm water, and pats the tender flesh dry with old linen or towels. The flesh of the very young baby must never be rubbed, always patted dry, and then powdered with talcum, especially where the flesh forms creases. This sponge bath on the nurse's lap is given daily until the baby is a week or ten days old, or when the cord comes off. After that the baby has a daily bath in a tub of its own.

2. My baby screams when I lay him in the tub. Should I give him a bath under such circumstances?

Try to learn the cause of the screams. The water may be too hot or too cold. It should register 100 degrees F. until the baby is at least eight weeks old. After that it may be reduced gradually to 85. Cold water shocks a baby. Perhaps you do not hold the baby properly in the tub and he may be afraid of slipping or falling under the water. Never let his head slip under the water, so that it can run into his eyes, mouth and nose. Support the back and head firmly under your left hand, and grasp the ankles with your right; then slip the little body gently under the water. Continue to support the head and back with your left hand and wash the baby with your right. Never let him lose the feeling of comfort and support given by your left hand, and he may be less fretful. If this does not cure his fear, consult your doctor. The baby may be highly nervous and need medical attention.

3. Is a sponge better for a young baby's skin than cloth?

No. Sponges hold germs and can infect a child's skin, if it is scratched. Soft old linen, old towels or gauze are better. Throw them away after using, or wash, boil and rough dry them with great care. Never use on a baby a towel used by older persons.

4. My baby's eyelids are a little inflamed at times, and sometimes seem to stick together with mucous. What shall I do?

Send for your physician. Inflammation is often the symptom of the dread disease responsible for two-thirds of the blindness in children. If the inflammation is not a symptom, it is due to lack of care and cleanliness. Wash the baby's eyes night and morning with absorbent cotton, dipped into a lukewarm solution of boric acid, one even teaspoonful to a cup of water. Use a fresh piece of absorbent cotton every time you wash the baby's eyes. Never expose the eyes of a young baby to strong light. Keep the nursery or bedroom dark. Turn crib and carriage so that the light does not fall on the baby's face. Even when showing the new baby to guests, do not allow the light to strike his eyes.

5. How can I cure the scales which form on my baby's scalp?

Rub the head nightly with sweet-oil, vaseline or pure cold cream. In the morning wash this off gently with old linen or gauze, pat the scalp dry and apply witch hazel. Never use a fine-tooth comb or rough towel to remove the scales. If this treatment is not effective consult your doctor.

6. My baby suffers greatly with heat rash. How should I treat it?

Stop the use of soap. Tie a cupful of bran in a piece of cheesecloth and squeeze into the bathwater until the latter turns milky. Bathe the baby in this, pat dry and powder with talcum. Be sure that the little slips worn by the baby are not starched nor trimmed with lace or embroidery to chafe neck and wrists. Be especially careful about the diapers. Never use a diaper the second time without washing. Wash with good soap and rinse thoroughly, dry in sun, fold but do not iron.

7. How do I wash my baby's mouth?

The mouth of the very young baby should not be washed. The mucous membrane is very tender. If broken, the mouth may become infected. If the mouth looks clean and sweet, and has no tiny white threads or flakes on its pink surface, it needs no attention. If these appear, the mouth must be swabbed out with absorbent cotton wrapped round a blunt wooden toothpick, dipped in boric water, one even teaspoon of borax to three ounces or six tablespoons of boiled water. Use this after each nursing or feeding. When the baby is three months old, wash the mouth daily, and as soon as teeth appear, cleanse them with a soft cloth at first, and then with a tiny soft brush.

NO CAUSE FOR WORRY, SAYS BANKER JORDAN

"All We Have to Do Is Sit Steady in the Boat."

Columbus, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) G. Gunby Jordan, banker, manufacturer and student of economic conditions, and today, on his return from New York:

"The United States was never in better shape in its history. The people owe less money than I have ever known them to owe. We had a fair oat crop, an average cotton crop, a great wheat crop, and Georgia is on velvet. There is no use for the United States to worry over the conditions which have been brought about by the European war.

"All we have to do is sit steady in the boat and hold our own."
